

If Noah Had Gone With The Crowd

By Marvin L. Johnson

It's nice to be where the multitudes throng,
It's easy to go with the crowd;
But many a time the crowd is all wrong,
Though claims that it's right are loud.

Whenever one sees others take the wrong way,
Though unable to stem the tide;
He must not let the crowd lead him astray,
Even if he by himself must abide.

If one's mind is made up to go the right way,
In his life sin will not be allowed.
For where would you and I be today,
If Noah had gone with the crowd?
