

“Lord, Prop Us Up On Our Leanin' Side”

By Mike Riley

The following story by an unknown author illustrates our need as Christians to lean upon the Lord for strength in helping us get through the difficult times of life:

Whenever I am asked to pray, I think of the old deacon who always prayed, “Lord, prop us up on our leanin’ side.”

After hearing that prayer many times, someone asked him why he prayed so fervently.

He answered, “Well sir, you see, it’s like this I got an old barn out back. It’s been there a long time, it’s withstood a lot of weather, it’s gone through a lot of storms, and it’s stood for many years. It’s still standing, but one day I noticed it was leaning to one side a bit. So I went and got some pine poles and propped it up on its leaning side so it wouldn’t fall.

Then I got to thinking ’bout that and how much I was like that old barn. I’ve been around a long time, I’ve withstood a lot of life’s storms, I’ve withstood a lot of bad weather in life, I’ve withstood a lot of hard times, and I’m still standing too. But I find myself leaning to one side from time to time, so I like to ask the Lord to prop us up on our leaning side, ’cause I figure a lot of us get to leaning, at times.

Sometimes we get to leaning toward anger, leaning toward bitterness, leaning toward hatred, leaning toward cussing, leaning toward a lot of things that we shouldn’t, so we need to pray, “Lord, prop us up on our leanin’ side, so we will stand straight and tall again, to glorify You, in Jesus’ name, Amen.”
