CELEBRATION SUNDAY
TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

The First Congregational Church of Greenwich declares itself to be open and affirming; open to all for participation, membership, leadership and employment, and affirming of all who wish to join us as children of God. We continue to give thanks for God's guidance in our journey of faith.

We welcome you this day and are glad you made the choice to join us for this worship service. May it be a blessing to you.

CHILDREN IN WORSHIP

God puts the wiggle in children and calls it good... and so do we!

At First Church, we believe the way we welcome children in worship directly affects the way they respond to God, to the church, and to one another.

To welcome children as they are in worship, we have our PrayGround, located in the Chapel (right side of the Meetinghouse), where children and others of all ages can engage in worship through movement, sensory materials, and prayerful play.

The presence of all God's children is a gift to the church, which offers hope for all.

†CALL TO WORSHIP

One: In the game of life, we must be practiced in many things:

All: Skills, employment, finances, networking.

One: In the life of faith, we are called to be practiced in these things:

All: Setting the standard for how to talk, act, love, and be faithful and pure.

One: In the faith of this church, we seek to be practiced in this thing:

All: Faith first, Love always. No matter who you are, you are welcome.

No matter who you are, you belong.

One: Practice makes perfect. Let us worship our God here and now,

All: So our practice gets put to good use when we go into the world.

†PRAYER FOR WHOLENESS (in unison)

Alida Elliott-Bocassi

God of every age, we can struggle to keep our hearts and minds focused on you when the world's myths and attention-grabs try to waste our time. Help us to follow the example set by Jesus and those who have come before us in faith, so we, too, can set an example of a pure heart, a good conscience, and a sincere faith. May we not give into the anxieties of our lives but be comforted through the studying of your word and ways. May we not neglect the gifts given to us but use them for the betterment of all. And may we not give into the burdens of the world but do our part to evaluate our lives through our speech, conduct, faith, and love. Amen.

†ASSURANCE OF GRACE

†PASSING OF THE PEACE

God makes peace within us. Let us claim it. God makes peace between us. Let us share it.

God has received us, pardoned us, and loved us; let us forgive each other in love and share the peace of Christ with a hand to hand, eye to eye, and heart to heart greeting. May the peace of Christ be with all of you.

All: And also with you.

3RD GRADE TEACHERS

We, your teachers, promised to open this book and its truths to you. We reflected on its stories with you to help you have a better understanding of its message.

3RD GRADE FAMILIES

We as parents want you to grow in knowledge of Jesus Christ and his love for you. We want to open its pages with you so together we can learn its words of life.

CONGREGATION

We as the congregation are pleased to present these Bibles to you with the hope that they may be, over the years, worn with use. We will do all we can as a church to help you understand and appreciate what is written on their pages.

ALL

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ. We therefore commend to your reading and understanding the amazing story of God's love for us through his son, our savior, Jesus Christ.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

1 Timothy 4: 6-16

The Voice Translation

Grayson and Jackson Atesmen

Place these truths before the brothers and sisters. If you do, you will be a good servant of Jesus the Anointed, raised and fed on words of true belief, trained in the good instruction you have so clearly followed. Reject worldly fables. Refuse old wives' tales. Instead, train yourself toward godliness. Although training your body has certain payoffs, godliness benefits all things—holding promise for life here and now and promise for the life that is coming. This statement is worthy of trust and our full acceptance. This is what we work so hard for! This is why we are constantly struggling: because we have an assured hope fixed upon a living God who is the Savior of all humankind—especially all of us who believe.

So go out and insist on these things. Teach them. Don't let anyone belittle you because you are young. Instead, show the faithful, young and old, an example of how to live: set the standard for how to talk, act, love, and be faithful and pure. Until I get there, make sure to devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, and to teaching. Don't neglect the gift that was given to you through the prophecy spoken when the company of the elders laid their hands on you. Practice these things, and live by them so that your progress will be visible to all. Take care of yourself, concentrate on your teaching, and stick with these things. If you do, then you will be effective in bringing salvation to yourself and all who hear you.

*We give our thanks to all who have helped our

One: Today, we recognize and affirm all our Church School teachers and helpers with deep appreciation for their dedication and faithful fulfillment of their call to journey with our children in faith.

All: We give thanks to God for their time and talent.

One: It is said that faith is caught not taught. Children learn the message of God's love and presence through the patient and consistent words and actions of committed teachers, helpers, and volunteers.

All: Thanks be to God for those who are willing to give of themselves through this gift of presence.

One: Through caring gestures and kind words, laughter and gentle encouragement, children learn of God's love and the joy of a faith community.

All: As a congregation, we give thanks to God for the blessings of time and commitment these teachers and helpers have given to our children. May their service be blessed, as it is a blessing to our community of faith.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
