God First

Matthew 6:33

Honoring God with Our Finances

Trusting God with our finances is an act of faith, acknowledging Him as our provider. By putting God first in our financial decisions, we express gratitude for God's blessings and demonstrate reliance on God's provision. Honoring God in this area of our life opens our hearts to generosity and stewardship, reflecting God as priority.

Proverbs 3:9

"Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce."

This verse encourages us to honor God with our finances by giving Him our best. Prioritizing God means recognizing His provision and offering our resources in gratitude. Honoring Him with our wealth fosters a spirit of generosity, reminding us that everything we have is ultimately His.

Malachi 3:10

"Bring all the tithes into the storehouse so there will be enough food in my Temple. If you do, says the Lord of Heaven's Armies, I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out a blessing so great you won't have enough room to take it in!"

This verse reassures us that when we give faithfully, God provides abundantly. By putting God first in our finances, we express trust in His provision, and He blesses us in return. Generosity allows us to experience God's faithfulness firsthand, witnessing His blessings as we honor Him.

2 Corinthians 9:7

"You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. 'For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.'"

This verse highlights the importance of a joyful, willing heart in giving. When we prioritize God, our giving becomes a joyful act of worship. God values our heart more than the amount, emphasizing that cheerful giving reflects our gratitude and trust in Him as our ultimate provider.

1 Timothy 6:17

"Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment."

This verse cautions us against relying on wealth, which is temporary. By placing our trust in God, we recognize Him as our source of provision. Prioritizing God over finances cultivates a spirit of contentment, reminding us that true security is found only in Him.

Matthew 6:24

"No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money."

Jesus teaches us that our hearts can only be fully devoted to one master. Putting God first means choosing Him over the pursuit of wealth. This commitment ensures that our values, actions, and goals align with His, freeing us from the limitations of worldly desires.

The Introduction

As we begin, by God's grace, another year and we embrace this special, intentional period of prayer and preparation, we are encouraged to sit with God; to soak in the Holy Spirit; to allow God to heal us from our pain, grief, anxiety and fears. It is our prayer that we will add this devotional to the ones we already use so that we are united in our quest for the richness of God's manifested presence in our lives and ministry.

Let us open ourselves up to the peace and power of God. Breathe in peace and exhale frustration. Each brief meditation includes an action. Something for us to do each day that is designed to bring us closer to the God we love, and empower us to emulate the character of God effectively [the Fruit of the Spirit]. Also, there is a song chosen for the lyrics to feed and fuel our soul.

If we are consistent, we will experience the manifestation of God's presence, peace and power. Get ready for the shift in the spirit realm. Greater is coming!

'What Does the Bible Say About Putting God First?

Putting God first is a key message in the Bible. It means placing God above everything else in our lives, letting Him be our guide in all we do. In Matthew 6:33, Jesus says, "But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." This verse reminds us that when we focus on God and His ways, He will take care of our needs.

The Bible also tells us to love God with all our heart, soul, and strength (Deuteronomy 6:5). This love isn't just a feeling; it's shown in how we live, in our choices, and in our priorities. When we put God first, it affects how we spend our time, how we treat others, and how we make decisions. For example, in Proverbs 3:5-6, we are encouraged to trust in God rather than relying solely on our own understanding. When we trust and follow Him, He makes our path clear.

Putting God first can mean choosing to pray, read the Bible, and obey His commandments, even when it's hard or when others may not understand. It might mean giving up certain desires or habits that don't honor Him. The Bible assures us that when we live this way, we'll find true peace and purpose. By putting God first, we honor Him and open our lives to His blessings, knowing that He will provide for us in all things.'

WEEK 1 Seek First the Kingdom of God

Introduction

Jesus calls us to seek God's kingdom as our primary pursuit. Putting God first means focusing on His will above our own, trusting that He will meet all of our needs. In a world of temporary pursuits, Jesus reminds us that true fulfillment and security are found only in Him.

The theme verse [Matthew 6:33] emphasizes that our first priority should be God's kingdom and righteousness. When we trust God fully and align our values with His, God promises to provide everything we need. It's a call to reorient our lives toward God's purposes, finding peace in knowing God will take care of us.

The Song For The Week: Take Time to be Holy

*1. Take time to be holy, speak oft with thy Lord;
Abide in Him always, and feed on His Word.
Make friends of God's children, help those who are weak,
Forgetting in nothing His blessing to seek.*

*2. Take time to be holy, the world rushes on;
Spend much time in secret, with Jesus alone.
By looking to Jesus, like Him thou shalt be;
Thy friends in thy conduct His likeness shall see.*

*3. Take time to be holy, let Him be thy Guide;
And run not before Him, whatever betide.
In joy or in sorrow, still follow the Lord,
And, looking to Jesus, still trust in His Word.*

*4. Take time to be holy, be calm in thy soul,
Each thought and each motive beneath His control.
Thus led by His Spirit to fountains of love,
Thou soon shalt be fitted for service above.*

The Action for the Week: Each day spend at least 5 minutes recalling your journey with God. Remembering His faithfulness to you; His love for you, His care for you. Feel His presence. Decide to do one thing each day that places God First.

DAY 1 January 6

Matthew 6:33

"But seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need."

The Prayer

Lord, You are the Creator of every good and perfect gift in our lives. You love us with an unfailing love. Thank you for the gift of life and for Your sustaining grace. Please forgive me for every time I did not place You first in my thinking and decisions. Help me to prioritize the Kingdom in my life. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Today I will _____ to put God first.

DAY 2

Luke 12:31

"Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and he will give you everything you need."

Here, Jesus repeats the priority of seeking God's kingdom. It assures us that God is fully aware of our needs and committed to fulfilling them when we prioritize Him. In a life that seeks God first, our desires align with His purposes, creating a life that is both fulfilling and spiritually rich.

The Prayer

Today I thank You for the new mercies You have given me. Please fill my heart with your Spirit and focus my mind on Your will and plans for me today

Today I will _____ to put God first.

Day 3

Proverbs 3:6

"Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take."

This verse encourages us to rely on God's guidance by seeking His will in every decision. When we turn to Him first, He offers direction and wisdom, making our paths clearer. This guidance is a promise of clarity and purpose for those who prioritize their relationship with God.

The Prayer

Lord, I thank you for Your perfect plan for me. Help me to be obedient to Your will and Your way. Please order my steps and thoughts today. In Jesus' Name . Amen

Today I will _____ to put God first.

Day 4

Colossians 3:1-2

"Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth."

This passage urges believers to maintain an eternal perspective. By focusing on heavenly realities, we remind ourselves of what truly matters. When we prioritize God, we align with the eternal purposes that surpass the temporary concerns of this world.

The Prayer

Lord, I thank you for my new life, I thank you for eternal life. Help my focus on the Kingdom. Help me to daily put You first and intentionally do things that give you glory. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Today I will _____ to put God first.

Day 5Psalm 37:4

"Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you your heart's desires."

Here, we learn that delighting in God aligns our desires with His. When we find joy in His presence, our hearts are transformed to seek what He desires, making it easier to put Him first. God's blessings follow as we make Him our greatest joy and priority.

The Prayer

Lord, I love you! Teach me Your ways, Your Word and Your will. Teach me to delight in your presence; to develop a hunger and thirst for You. Lord, teach me to not only focus on You, but to truly delight in Your presence, Your Word and Your will. Place in my heart your desires for me. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Today I will _____ to put God first.

Trusting God Above All Else

Trusting God means leaning on His wisdom rather than our own understanding. By putting Him first, we place our faith in His perfect plans. Trusting Him opens us to His peace and provides stability in uncertain times, reminding us that God's ways are higher than ours.

Day 6Proverbs 3:5

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding.”

This verse calls us to a deep, unwavering trust in God. It reminds us that relying solely on our limited understanding can mislead us, but trusting in God’s infinite wisdom leads to true security and peace. By putting God first, we choose to rest in His knowledge, knowing He guides us with love.

The Prayer

Lord, thank you for every blessing, every breakthrough and every miracle. Lord, Increase my faith. Help me to trust you in every area of my life. Help me to remember how much You love me and desire good things for me. Help me know that You are working for my good. In Jesus’ Name. Amen.

Today I will _____ to put God first.

Day 7

Reflection of the Week

Review the previous meditations, and give God glory and praise for God’s faithfulness.

Today I will _____ to put God first.

WEEK 2 January 12

As we continue to spend more quality time with God, we become energized, renewed and restored. How empowering it is to saturate our souls in God’s presence and mediate on God’s Word. Putting God first shifts our attitude, our priorities, and our actions.

What a blessing it is to share the wonderful gift of God’s love, grace and mercy. Consider being an intentional blessing to others, this week, by sharing God’s love for them. Think outside of the box, outside of your comfort zone. We serve an amazing God, a loving God, a forgiving God. Tell someone. Show someone.

Song for the Week

Take My Life and Let it Be

1 Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee.

Take my moments and my days; let them flow in endless praise, let them flow in endless praise.

2 Take my hands and let them move at the impulse of thy love.

Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for thee, swift and beautiful for thee.

*3 Take my voice and let me sing always, only, for my King.
Take my lips and let them be filled with messages from thee, filled with messages from thee.*

*4 Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect and use every power as thou shalt choose,
every power as thou shalt choose.*

*5 Take my will and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart it is thine own; it shall be thy royal throne,
it shall be thy royal throne.*

*6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee, ever, only, all for thee.

The Action for the Week

This week let us be intentional about sharing Christ with our family [saved and unsaved]. Let's share how much we love the Lord, and share/show the impact this special consecration time is having in our thoughts and actions. [This is NOT nagging, but rather sharing love]

Day 1 January 13

Psalm 56:3

"But when I am afraid, I will put my trust in you."

In moments of fear, we are invited to turn our trust to God. This verse emphasizes that God is our protector and source of strength. By putting our confidence in Him, even fear loses its grip. Trusting God first shifts our focus from our anxieties to God's enduring faithfulness.

The Prayer

Lord, I know you love me. The Word says I can cast all my cares on You because You care for me. There are times, God, when I am anxious, when I am worried, when I am afraid. In these moments, please allow the Holy Spirit to remind me that You are Omnipresent, Omnipotent and Omniscient. Help me trust You thru my fears. In Jesus' Name. Amen

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

Day 2

Jeremiah 17:7

"But blessed are those who trust in the Lord and have made the Lord their hope and confidence."

Trusting God brings a profound blessing into our lives. This verse assures us that placing our hope and confidence in God positions us to receive His guidance and peace. When God is our first priority, our faith is steadfast, unshaken by circumstances.

The Prayer

Lord, help me to put ALL of my hope and trust in You. Help me to hear You clearly and to submit to Your guidance. Because I put You first, I know I will walk in victory. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

Day 3

Isaiah 26:3

"You will keep in perfect peace all who trust in you, all whose thoughts are fixed on you!"

This promise of peace flows from trust in God. By keeping our thoughts on Him, we receive peace that the world cannot offer. Putting God first quiets our worries, grounding us in His unchanging nature and allowing His peace to reign in our hearts.

Prayer

Lord, help me to focus on You. Your Kingdom, Your mercy, goodness, forgiveness, and love. As I saturate my thinking with You, I receive your perfect peace, in Jesus' Name. Amen

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

Day 4

Psalms 62:8

"O my people, trust in him at all times. Pour out your heart to him, for God is our refuge."

God invites us to trust Him at all times, no matter what we face. This verse reminds us that God is a safe refuge where we can bring our worries and fears. Placing our faith in Him first makes our relationship with Him our place of safety and strength, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Prayer

Lord, I declare you are trustworthy. As I face the challenges of the day help me to trust Your Word in every circumstance. Help me to stand firm on Your promises.

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

God's Will Over Our Own

Putting God first also means yielding to His will above ours. Surrendering our desires to Him brings freedom, as we let go of our plans to embrace His. Living in submission to God allows His wisdom and love to guide us toward His ultimate purpose for our lives.

Day 5

Luke 22:42

"Lord, if you are willing, please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine."

In His moment of deepest anguish, Jesus exemplified the ultimate act of surrender. By submitting to God's will, even through great suffering, Jesus demonstrated that God's plans are always good. Putting God first involves the courage to trust in His wisdom, even when it challenges our desires.

The Prayer

Lord Jesus was the greatest example of submission and obedience. Help me follow His example and surrender to Your will, even when it is difficult, in Jesus' Name. Amen

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

Day 6

Matthew 26:39

"He went on a little farther and bowed with his face to the ground, praying, 'My Lord! If it is possible, let this cup of suffering be taken away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.'"

This verse captures Jesus' deep trust in His Lord's will. Even in moments of difficulty, Jesus prioritized God's plan over personal comfort. This surrender shows us that putting God first requires complete trust in His greater purposes, no matter the cost.

The Prayer

Lord, again I remember that You are my sustainer, provider and protector. Give me courage to say yes to Your will and strength to trust the process, in Jesus Name. Amen

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

Day 7

Reflection of the Week

Review the previous meditations, and give God glory and praise for God's faithfulness.

The Action: Who did I share God's love with today?

Week 3 January 20

When we put God first, the righteous consequence is that it gives godly perspective for everything and everyone else, including ourselves. Placing God's will above our wishes, our comfortability, and even our self-perceived ability removes many barriers to living a life full of joy, love and peace.

The Action: This week ask God the question each morning, "What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?" Write it down and ask the Holy Spirit to lead you in accomplishing your assignment. At the end of the day, write down how it felt to complete your task and please God.

The Song Of The Week : Open My Eyes that I May See

1 Open my eyes that I may see glimpses of truth thou hast for me.

Place in my hands the wonderful key that shall unclasp and set me free.

Silently now I wait for thee, ready, my God, thy will to see.

Open my eyes, illumine me, Spirit divine!

2 Open my ears that I may hear voices of truth thou sendest clear, and while the wave notes fall on my ear, ev'rything false will disappear.

Silently now I wait for thee, ready, my God, thy will to see.

Open my ears, illumine me, Spirit divine!

3 Open my mouth and let me bear gladly the warm truth ev'rywhere.

Open my heart and let me prepare love with thy children thus to share.

Silently now I wait for thee, ready, my God, thy will to see.

Open my mouth, illumine me, Spirit divine!

Day 1 January 20

Proverbs 16:3

"Commit your actions to the Lord, and your plans will succeed."

By committing our actions to God, we align our goals with His purpose. This verse reassures us that when our priorities are rooted in God's will, success follows naturally. Making God's will our first pursuit reshapes our plans to reflect His vision for our lives.

The Prayer

Lord, I submit to Your will and to Your way. I know You know what is best for me and You have plans for my success in this life, filled with love, joy, and peace. Help me to walk in the path You have for me. I know your ways lead to victory. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Day 2

James 4:15

"What you ought to say is, 'If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that.'"

This passage calls us to acknowledge God's sovereignty in all we do. Recognizing that His plans are superior, we remain open to His guidance. This mindset fosters humility, reminding us that God's will ultimately directs the paths of those who seek Him first.

The Prayer

Lord, help me to walk in humility; to always remember that you are the giver of everything and that Your thoughts are higher than my thoughts. Help to have a kingdom mentality that always puts You first, in Jesus Name. Amen.

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Day 3

Romans 12:2

"Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think."

This verse urges us to prioritize God's transforming work over worldly influences. By seeking God first, we open ourselves to His renewal, aligning our thoughts and values with His. Transformation begins as we place His will above all else, allowing His power to shape us into His image.

Prayer

Lord, I thank you for Your transforming power. Help me to desire to be more like You. Mold me and shape me into the person that honors You and gives You glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Living by Faith, Not by Sight

Living by faith calls us to trust in God's unseen promises rather than relying solely on what we can understand or control. By putting God first, we demonstrate our faith in His perfect timing and provision, embracing His plans even when they're beyond our understanding. Faith allows us to live confidently in His promises, knowing that He is faithful.

Day 4

2 Corinthians 5:7

"For we live by believing and not by seeing."

This verse encourages us to prioritize our faith over our senses. Trusting in what we cannot see reflects our commitment to God's promises, showing that we put Him first even when our path is unclear. True faith places confidence in God's unseen guidance, fostering a reliance that deepens our relationship with Him.

Prayer

Lord, many times I am overwhelmed by what I see and what I feel. Please help me place faith over fear and confidence over confusion and concern, and belief over anxiety, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Day 5

Hebrews 11:1

"Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see."

Faith is trusting in God's promises even when they're intangible. By embracing faith, we affirm our commitment to God's unseen plans. This verse reminds us that living by faith—putting God first—grounds us in a hope that surpasses our understanding, securing us in His faithfulness.

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Day 6

Romans 1:17

"This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, 'It is through faith that a righteous person has life.'"

Our relationship with God begins and endures through faith, empowering us to live by His righteousness. Putting God first by living in faith allows His Spirit to guide us, leading us toward a life that reflects His grace. A faith-centered life honors God as our ultimate source of purpose.

Prayer

Lord, I thank you for the gift of salvation that I have received by faith. Lord, I pray that You strengthen my faith so that I can live a life that reflects Your love, grace and mercy, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Day 7

Galatians 2:20

"My old self has been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by trusting in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

Prayer

Lord, I am so grateful that my old actions, words, and thoughts are nailed to the cross. Because of the shed blood of Christ, I am made new. Help me to receive Your love and transformation. Help me be more like You, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

"What do You want me to accomplish in Your name today? How can I give you Glory today?"

Best Gifts For Your Loved Ones

This verse expresses a profound surrender to Christ's presence. Living by faith means recognizing that our lives belong to Him. When we prioritize God by embracing this life of faith, our identity and purpose shift from self-centeredness to Christ-centeredness, fostering a life marked by His love and sacrifice.

Week 4 January 27

As we come to the close of Consecration 2025, we have focused on putting God first in our thoughts, words, and actions. We are intentionally positioning ourselves for the rest of the year, focusing on the Word, the will, way and the work of God in 2025. We acknowledge that it is the will of God for us to have a strong witness to others and tell of God's grace and goodness.

This week we are preparing for the Healing and Deliverance service and praying for guidance, for direction and for a prepared spirit to receive what God has for us.

The Action: I declare and decree the manifestation of God's deliverance, healing and breakthrough over my entire family, by the power of the Holy ghost in the name of Jesus.

The Song for the Week

*1 I am weak, and I need Thy strength and power
To help me over my weakest hour;
Let me through the darkness Thy face to see,
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.*

Refrain:

*Lead me, guide me along the way;
For if You lead me, I cannot stray;
Lord, let me walk each day with Thee.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.*

*2 Help me tread in the paths of righteousness;
Be my aid when Satan and sin oppress.
I am putting all my trust in Thee,
Lead me, O Lord, lead me. [Refrain]*

*3 I am lost, if you take your hand from me;
I am blind, without Thy Light to see;
Lord, just always let me Thy servant be,
Lead me, O Lord, lead me. [Refrain]*

Day 1 January 27

James 1:6

“But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind.”

This verse encourages unwavering faith. Putting God first means placing all of our trust in Him alone, unshaken by doubts. An undivided faith in God leads to spiritual stability, giving us strength in times of trial. Faith without reservation signifies our commitment to depend solely on Him.

Prayer

Lord I am thankful that you hear me when I pray. Help me pray in faith that does not waver, that does not doubt. Establish Your Word in my heart and plant my feet firmly in your will. Please make my faith unshakable, unmovable and unwavering, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Action: I declare and decree the manifestation of God's deliverance, healing and breakthrough over my entire family, by the power of the Holy ghost in the nae of Jesus.

Prioritizing God in Relationships

Putting God first transforms our relationships, aligning them with His love, grace, and purpose. When we prioritize our relationship with God, we reflect His character in how we treat others, leading to healthy, Christ-centered relationships that honor Him. Loving God above all else inspires us to love others as He loves us.

Day 2

Matthew 22:37-39

“Jesus replied, ‘You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

This teaching emphasizes the foundation of our relationship with God and others. Loving God wholeheartedly inspires us to extend His love to others. Prioritizing God in our lives influences our relationships, guiding us to act with compassion, respect, and kindness toward everyone around us.

Prayer

Lord, search my heart. It is my desire to give you all of me. It is my desire to love you with holding nothing. If there is any sin, any fear, any emotion that keeps me from giving all of me, please remove it, in Jesus' Name. Amen

The Action: I declare and decree the manifestation of God's deliverance, healing and breakthrough over my entire family, by the power of the Holy ghost in the nae of Jesus.

Day 3

1 John 4:19

“We love each other because he loved us first.”

This verse reminds us that our love for others stems from God's love for us. When we put God first, His love flows through us, equipping us to love authentically. By focusing on God, we gain the strength and motivation to love others selflessly, reflecting His love in all our relationships.

Prayer

Lord, enlarge my capacity to love. Teach me love without expectation of reciprocity. Teach me to abide in agape love, unconditional love. Guide me in sharing Your love with others.

The Action: I declare and decree the manifestation of God's deliverance, healing and breakthrough over my entire family, by the power of the Holy ghost in the nae of Jesus.

Day 4

John 15:12

“This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you.”

Jesus commands us to love others as He loves us—selflessly and sacrificially. Putting God first means allowing His love to guide our actions and attitudes. This commandment calls us to follow Jesus’ example, loving others with patience, forgiveness, and grace, as an outpouring of our devotion to God.

Prayer Lord, as I sit in presence, I am keenly aware that the love displayed on Calvary, for me, was selfless and sacrificial. Help me emulate that kind of love to others so that You may receive the glory, in Jesus’ Name. Amen

The Action: I declare and decree the manifestation of God’s deliverance, healing and breakthrough over my entire family, by the power of the Holy ghost in the name of Jesus.

Day 5

Romans 12:10

“Love each other with genuine affection, and take delight in honoring each other.”

Prioritizing God transforms our relationships by fostering genuine love and respect. This verse encourages us to treat others with honor and affection. When God is our focus, we naturally express His love in our interactions, building relationships grounded in mutual respect and genuine care.

Prayer : Lord, I pray to see people as You see them; not looking on the outward appearance but seeing each person as a living eternal soul. Help me to love them as You continue to love me, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

The Action: I declare and decree the manifestation of God’s deliverance, healing and breakthrough over my entire family, by the power of the Holy ghost in the name of Jesus.

It is our prayer that the walk through this month of fasting, praying, meditating and taking action steps has blessed you and has brought about a closer walk with God.

We pray that this year, 2025, will be filled with miracles, increase, blessings and answered prayers.

We pray that family members, neighbors and friends will be saved.

We pray for open doors of opportunity for God’s glory.

We pray for the promises of God to be manifested in your life.

We pray for the church to “go up” in glorious praise to the Father, in a way that builds our faith and effectiveness in ministry,

God Bless You.
