Down:

1. Being near or in the company of God.
2. To bring back to a previous or better condition; here, referring to God's restoration of the soul.
3. Calm, peaceful waters symbolizing God's rest and refreshment.
4. Consolation or relief from distress or sorrow, provided by God's presence.
5. One who guides and cares for a flock of sheep, symbolizing God's care and guidance for His people.
6. Journey or course of life, guided by God.
7. To consecrate or set apart for a special purpose, often symbolizing God's blessing and empowerment.

Across:

5. Those who oppose or harm, contrasted with God's protection and provision.
9. Lush, fertile fields representing provision and sustenance provided by God.
10. Innermost self or essence, often associated with emotions, thoughts, and spiritual life.
