INGREDIENTS OF BIBLICAL DISCIPLESHIP

1 THESSALONIANS 3:1-10

This morning, we will examine 1 Thessalonians 3:1-10 and will quickly notice how both Paul and Timothy practically disciplined the church in Thessalonica. We then see the response of the church to Paul and Timothy.

Through this passage we see a wonderful example of some key components of discipling others as well as some ways to encourage those that are discipling us. Will we seek to apply the examples given both as someone who disciplines and someone who is being disciplined?

THE POWER OF COLLEGE MINISTRY

Cole Jones will be sharing during our ABF class and sharing a testimony as part of this morning's service. He is the son of our former Youth Pastor, Josh Jones. Cole grew up in our church, and we are excited to hear about the plans he has for missions work in Columbus, Ohio!

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 2-22-26

CONNECT

Cole Jones grew up at Breesport and is now serving God full time. Share about others you know, either from Breesport or a church you were previously part of, who grew up and were mentored in the church and are now serving God full time.

GROW

- What stood out to you the most this week for the service, text, or message and why?
- What does Biblical suffering, affliction, and persecution look like? What do people claim as Biblical persecution that they should not? What makes the difference?
- One way Paul sacrificed for the church in Thessalonica was by sending Timothy to assist them. Share a testimony about someone who sacrificed for you, and how it built up your faith.
- Throughout this passage, you can see Paul and Timothy building into the church in Thessalonica through both their words and actions. You then see the results when the church is an encouragement to Paul and Timothy. Share a time you sought to build into the life of another believer and how they were an encouragement to you as a result.

MULTIPLY

Who is someone you can prayerfully encourage this week? What can you do to build into their lives? How can your life group help?
