RECONCILING MINISTRY

Here at Amlin, all are invited to come as you are to praise the Lord and receive the Good News of Jesus Christ. We believe that we are all called to love our neighbor and that all people are worthy of love. It is our differences that make us whole. If you are new to Amlin, we hope you'll find a place where you are warmly welcomed and feel at home.

OUR MISSION

Go and make disciples for the transformation of the world!

Blessing for Ash Wednesday

These days of dust.
These days of despair.
We can hear reality speak to us in a clear, ringing voice.
So we approach. Carefully.
Barely ready to hear the hard truths we long to be told about beautiful, terrible death.

How strange that it feels so right and good to walk forward together wearing our finitude,
a mess of ash smeared on our foreheads to be told:
remember that you are dust,
and to dust you shall return.

How strange that it feels so right and good at the edge of awareness
—the balance point
of being and non-being.
I catch my breath as I turn and look to see the shining faces all around.
I see it all in a glance:
how precious
how precious
how precious
how holy each single, imperfect life, how beautiful
how great
how unconquerable
each single, unfinishable life, because you deemed it so.
You looked on us,
covered in death,
as a man about to walk
a darkening path,
the only one who could wipe away our ashes with a single act of love.⁵
