Gracious God, You have entrusted us with gifts, talents, and faith.*Forgive us when fear keeps us from using what You have given. Give us courage to invest our lives in Your work, so that Your love may overflow through us into this church and into the world You love. We offer ourselves to You with gratitude and trust. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 25:14-30

Joyce Lasch

<sup>14</sup> "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who was leaving on a trip. He called his servants and handed his possessions over to them. <sup>15</sup> To one he gave five valuable coins,<sup>[a]</sup> and to another he gave two, and to another he gave one. He gave to each servant according to that servant's ability. Then he left on his journey. <sup>16</sup> After the man left, the servant who had five valuable coins took them and went to work doing business with them. He gained five more. <sup>17</sup> In the same way, the one who had two valuable coins gained two more. <sup>18</sup> But the servant who had received the one valuable coin dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. <sup>19</sup> Now after a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. <sup>20</sup> The one who had received five valuable coins came forward with five additional coins. He said, 'Master, you gave me five valuable coins. Look, I've gained five more.'

<sup>21</sup> "His master replied, 'Excellent! You are a good and faithful servant! You've been faithful over a little. I'll put you in charge of much. Come, celebrate with me.' <sup>22</sup> The second servant also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two valuable coins. Look, I've gained two more.'

<sup>23</sup> "His master replied, 'Well done! You are a good and faithful servant. You've been faithful over a little. I'll put you in charge of much. Come, celebrate with me.' <sup>24</sup> Now the one who had received one valuable coin came and said,

'Master, I knew that you are a hard man. You harvest grain where you haven't sown. You gather crops where you haven't spread seed. <sup>25</sup> So I was afraid. And I hid my valuable coin in the ground. Here, you have what's yours.'

<sup>26</sup> "His master replied, 'You evil and lazy servant! You knew that I harvest grain where I haven't sown and that I gather crops where I haven't spread seed? <sup>27</sup> In that case, you should have turned my money over to the bankers so that when I returned, you could give me what belonged to me with interest. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, take from him the valuable coin and give it to the one who has ten coins. <sup>29</sup> Those who have much will receive more, and they will have more than they need. But as for those who don't have much, even the little bit they have will be taken away from them. <sup>30</sup> Now take the worthless servant and throw him out into the farthest darkness.'

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
