From Pastor's Pen:

*Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet... Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"—and that he had said these things to her.
(John 20:11-12, 16-18)*

Dear Saints of God:

As we celebrate our Lord's resurrection, let us turn our attention to that committed, and beloved disciple, Mary of Magdala. In the verses above, John tells us that she was weeping in sadness outside the garden tomb because the body of her Lord was missing. All that changed, however, when she heard the voice of Jesus calling her by name, talking to her in garden, and then sending her off to share the Good News of His resurrection with the others. It is a touching scene, and one that captures the Easter joy that overcomes all sadness.

In 1912, Charles Austin Miles, wrote a very popular hymn, In the Garden, to recount Mary's unique experience of literally speaking face-to-face with her risen Savior in the garden that first Easter morning. Taken in that context, it is a wonderful hymn upon which to meditate when considering Mary's experience.

We would, however, be misguided in using this hymn out of context to apply it to our perceived spiritual experiences. God has not chosen for us to experience Him, or receive our resurrection joy, alone in a garden or on a golf course where we wait for a voice to speak to our minds or in our hearts from the ether.

Instead of an ethereal, subjective encounter with what we perceive to be Christ's presence we are called to assemble with our fellow believers in the Lord's house where He promises to be present when "two or three are gathered in His name." Our Easter experience takes us, first, to our baptism where Christ called us by name to belong to Him, washed away the sins that had separated us from Him, and gave us the Holy Spirit. Through the water and the Word we experienced Christ's resurrection in a powerful and miraculous way, because that is when we were united with His resurrection. That is when we were made alive in Christ to live new and everlasting lives with and for Him. In our weekly Divine Services, we continue to experience mini-Easters as Jesus comes to us walking and talking with us through His Word and Sacrament. Through these He turns our weeping into a joy that can never be taken away. Then, like Mary, He sends us to share with others all that He has said to us, so that they may share in our resurrection joy.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, please join your fellow saints this Easter in worship. Come, hear the voice of Jesus! Come, listen what He has to say to you! Come, experience the resurrection joy He offers you! And then go and share with others the Good News that turns sorrow into everlasting joy: "Christ is risen! He is risen, Indeed! Alleluia!"

Volunteer Appreciation Month

Every April, we have the opportunity to take a moment and bring attention to the volunteers around the world and in our own communities. It is especially important for us here at St. John's to take a moment to recognize all of the volunteers in our own pews.

There are very few duties carried out in the day to day life of the congregation that are not the product of volunteer efforts. Every board and committee is filled with those of you who donate your time and effort to keep things running smoothly and for the benefit of the church members, visitors, and community at large.

So when you find yourself feeling thankful for the fellowship opportunities, the coffee set up for you on Sunday mornings, the neatly mowed grass, the functioning library, the special music, the delicious potlucks, and so much more, take a moment to appreciate the people who make all this possible and thank God for the talents He has given to His people to serve His church. On the other hand, if you find yourself taking all of these things for granted, remember that these are things you are privileged to take part in and enjoy and they come at the cost of time, effort, and donations from the congregation.

Thank you to all our volunteers! The examples given above don't cover the wide array of efforts that take place regularly here at St. John's, but we appreciate all of you nonetheless.

If you are interested in finding out more about ways you can give your time and talents, let us know and we can get you involved!

Blessings to you all in Christ

Notes from the Balcony

Happy April! Happy Spring! Albeit a quick look at the Oxford dictionary's entry for April considers April the second month of spring, most years, at least in this part of the Midwest, the earth still spends most of March shaking off its last bits of winter and doesn't get around to spring until April. The phrase this dictionary used to help explain the entry "April" is: "the prison was to close in April." How very odd to use this as an example, I thought when I read it. But in the church, where Easter is usually celebrated in April, it has an uncanny relevance. The prison called "death" we were all destined for because of our sins closed on Easter. Jesus, our prison destroyer, allowed Himself, who earned no death sentence due to sin, to take on our penalty, enduring the cross, death, and grave in our place. He then closed the prison when He rose on Easter morning and gifted this new and much-improved life sentence to us as the best Easter present ever! Move over chocolate eggs and jelly-beans.

One of our member's favorite hymns is Christ is Arisen, LSB 459. This medieval Easter vigil hymn clarifies how apt the Oxford dictionary's phrase fits for a definition of April.

"Christ is arisen
 From the grave's dark prison.
 So let our joy rise full and free;
 Christ our comfort true will be.
 Alleluia!
 Were Christ not arisen,
 Then death were still our prison.
 Now, with Him to life restored,
 We praise the Father of our Lord.
 Alleluia!
 Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
 Now let our joy rise full and free;
 Christ our comfort true will be.
 Alleluia!"

Happy Easter to all!
 Love in Christ,
 Christine Engebrecht

From the CID

Lent starts late this year. We have been able to enjoy two full months of Epiphany, the revelation of the glorious power and grace of our God and Savior Jesus Christ. Remembering this lightens Lent's dark themes of sin and its horrible consequences. Perhaps also the presence of sunlight as we exit our mid-week Lenten services will help us to remember the blessed end of all this: God's glorious grace shining on us out of an opened heaven.

While the presence of physical light can improve our moods, Jesus Christ, "the light of the world" (John 8:12), improves everything for God's believing people. God's word is a lamp for our feet and a light for our paths (Psalm 119:105). In Epiphany, Lent, Easter, and every week of the Church year, God's word shows us His gracious love for us, because He did not leave us in the darkness, but "brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel" (2 Tim. 1:10). "Because the God who said, 'Light shall shine out of darkness,' is He who shined in our hearts for the enlightenment of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ" (2 Cor. 4:6). "Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures ... But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruit of those who have fallen asleep ... Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Cor. 15:3,20,57). Enjoy a lighter Lent!

Jim said he needs to report at the convention what our congregation would like to see happen. "Bring Giving Home...but it doesn't stay at home!" is the District Funding Campaign. The campaign aims to raise $7M. Does our congregation not only want to approve the campaign but be able to generously support it?
