

The Holy Spirit

Just who is the Holy Spirit? We meet him at the very beginning in the bible. Genesis 1:2, mentions the Spirit of God. The New Testament will speak of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Much has been and will be said about the Holy Spirit by man. Let us establish first of the person of the Holy Spirit.

To start, The Holy Spirit is a divine person. He is the third person of the Trinity. This has been the standard Christian view. There are other views that we don't have time nor space to address. Those views are cultic and not worth our time. What saith the word of God?

Jesus, before he left this world, promised the apostles a helper, counselor, comforter, advocate. In this way, he underscores the personhood of the Spirit. As such, Jesus tells the apostles that he will not leave them alone, but will send a defense lawyer to help them. Remember, he is leaving, and up to this time Jesus had told them what to say. But he promises them a new helper in the Holy Spirit.

That promise to the apostles will result in the New Testament. What they teach/write is the same as had Jesus said it. (That is why the Red-Letter words of Jesus are needless. ALL the words in the New Testament are Jesus', through inspiration.) For instance, see: John 16:12-14.

With this in mind, we see the Holy Spirit is a person/personage of the Godhead. He is fully God. He is divine. We will address this next.

--In Him, Gary.
