

The Holy Spirit

We have concluded that the Holy Spirit is God. He is equal to the Father and the Son. However, his work (function) is different from them. This we will discuss.

The Spirit does two works: He gives us knowledge and power. Let us address knowledge. Our 66 books of the Bible were written by human authors. But we must address that they were all immediately influenced by God the Spirit. Therefore, the Bible is the Holy Spirit's gift to us.

God chose to reveal his very words to us. Amazing! Human communication is hindered by faulty or misunderstood knowledge. So, God in order to communicate truth to us, his creation, he must guide us. This is by way of revealed and inspired words.

God revealed directly to human authors. Anything that could not have been known by the author God revealed. For instance, Genesis 1 and the creation account had to be revealed. Or Isaiah 53, where things are mentioned that are foreknown. Other parts of the Bible are not revelation. For example, Paul sent greetings to those he knew in his writings.

Question: Why should we trust and obey any parts of the Bible? This is where we find inspiration! When it came time to write the originals (called autographs), each author had every word approved by the Holy Spirit. Every word in the Bible, whether revealed or the author's own experiences is inspired. Therefore, we can and must obey all the Bible!

Next, we will see where the Scriptures testify to this.

--In Him, Gary.
