Bible Reading Plan for 2026-2027

Gateway Christian Fellowship

Intro to the Plan

Personal devotional reading is an essential practice that has the power to shape and transform the life of the disciple. As we begin 2026, we are excited about journeying along with one another, in reading the scriptures together over the next two years (2026-2027).

The Bible reading plan that you have in your hands, will take you through every word of the Bible over the course of the next two years. To help further bring the scriptures to life and application, much of the Sunday morning preaching over these two years will parallel along with where you are in the reading plan.

This plan is for all ages, and we would encourage families to consider doing devotional reading together whenever convenient, and that conversations around the Scriptures fill your home. If you have small children, consider how you might engage them in learning the scriptures as you read through them, yourself.

How the Reading Plan Works:

Each day in the Bible reading plan consists of two passages of reading – one from a given book of the Bible, and the other from either the Psalms (Ps) or the Proverbs (Prov). There are “catch-up” days incorporated into the plan, which are high-lighted in green on the paper. On those days, there is only a scheduled Psalm or Proverb to read, but you may also use those days to catch up on any passages that you may have fallen behind on.

You’ll notice some color-coding on the pages, and it simply means this:

- Light Yellow indicates it’s Sunday, the first day of the week.
- Blue indicates the very first day in a new book of the Bible.
- Green indicates a catch-up day.

The Structure of the Plan

This plan is structured to take the reader through entire books at a time, which will help maintain a cohesiveness in reading. Rather than going through the entire Old Testament followed by the New Testament, however, the plan integrates both testaments over the course of the two years.

For instance, upon completing the Pentateuch (the first five books of the Old Testament), the plan will take you into Matthew, one of the four Gospel accounts in our Bibles. On the opposite side of this page, there is a simple chart outlining the order of the books in this reading plan, the number of days we will spend in each, and some further insights about the order.

Let’s Go!

On a final note, each day’s reading is also available on our website. Simply navigate to www.GatewayCF.com/devotions and you’ll see it there. We will also be providing short videos for the introduction to each book of the Bible as we move forward.

Now... let’s have some fun together on this Journey – let’s go!
