

Households of Peace

Ephesians 5:15–6:4

Jay Holland - Associate Pastor of Families and Students

Paul isn't giving isolated marriage advice — he's locating _____ inside the entire _____ of _____. (Ephesians 5:15-6:4)

God's Command: "Make my world _____ through your _____." (Genesis 1)

The Christian household is a _____ of God's _____ work Households of _____ Households of _____ Households of _____ Households of _____

Spouses

_____ that you would have a household of _____ and _____ _____ the _____ of your house
Make it _____ for your spouse to _____ their _____

Children

Honor your parents as if _____ will _____ you
Master _____ your own _____
Don't let a _____ define you - "Not your _____, still your _____."

Singles

_____ this _____ to the Lord
Adopt _____ families _____ your _____ for the Kingdom

Marriage is a picture of the _____.
Singleness is a _____ that the gospel is _____.

Households of Peace

Ephesians 5:15–6:4

Jay Holland - Associate Pastor of Families and Students

Paul isn't giving isolated marriage advice — he's locating marriage inside the entire story of redemption. (Ephesians 5:15-6:4)

God's Command: "Make my world flourish through your fruitful relationship."

(Genesis 1)

The Christian household is a frontline arena of God's redemptive work

Households of peace

Households of joy

Households of abundance

Households of healing

Spouses

Pray that you would have a household of peace and healing

Redeem the rhythms of your house

Make it easy for your spouse to fulfill their role

Children

Honor your parents as if God will reward you

Master managing your own life

Don't let a victim mindset define you - "Not your fault, still your responsibility."

Singles

Dedicate this season to the Lord

Adopt spiritual families

Leverage your freedom for the Kingdom

Marriage is a picture of the gospel. Singleness is a testimony that the gospel is enough.