

“Sexuality, Human Nature, and the Truth”

Walking in the Truth, Part 4

- 1. Truth is that which aligns with _____.
- 2. God alone has the authority to _____ reality and to _____ truth.
- 3. God designed sexual intimacy to be enjoyed by _____ and _____ in the context of _____. (Genesis 2:18, 24-25)
- 4. It’s only by _____ God’s _____ for us that we can live life at its best.
- 5. When we want to know what’s true on any subject, we need look no further than _____. (Psalm 119:105, II Timothy 3:16-17, NIV)

Speaking the Truth in Love

- 1. Remember the _____. (Ephesians 6:12)
- 2. Remember who _____ might be _____. (I Corinthians 6:9-11)
- 3. Be _____ and _____. (II Timothy 2:24-25)
- 4. Remember that only the _____ will _____. (John 8:31-32)

“Sexuality, Human Nature, and the Truth”

Walking in the Truth, Part 4

1. Truth is that which aligns with reality.
2. God alone has the authority to define reality and to reveal truth.
3. God designed sexual intimacy to be enjoyed by husband and wife in the context of marriage. (Genesis 2:18, 24-25)
4. It's only by embracing God's original design for us that we can live life at its best.
5. When we want to know what's true on any subject, we need look no further than God's Word. (Psalm 119:105, II Timothy 3:16-17, NIV)

Speaking the Truth in Love

1. Remember the real enemy. (Ephesians 6:12)
2. Remember who you might be without Jesus. (I Corinthians 6:9-11)
3. Be prayerful and gentle. (II Timothy 2:24-25)
4. Remember that only the truth will set them free. (John 8:31-32)