Trinity Lutheran Church and School

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

1 Samuel 12:24 Only fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart. For consider what great things he has done for you.

One day recently, when I was pouring through a devotional book of mine, More Light on the Path, I ran across the above passage from 1st Samuel. The devotion was entitled, "Sacrificial Joy". It stated this, "It is not so much the "what" as it is the "why" and the "how" that matter in sacrificial living. For the heart that is deeply in love, all sacrifice for the beloved in sheer joy".

Boy O Boy did that hit home with me. In this "what have you done for me lately" world, the Christian must seriously consider this statement. We consistently desire things to go our way, to work out for the "best". But, whose best are we striving for? "fear the Lord and serve him faithfully", first Samuel tells us. We pray "thy will be done", not mine. We must consider what great things God has done for us. That is, above all else, above job, spouse, children, home, fun, money, clothes, car we are to serve the Lord faithfully. As St. Paul puts it in Romans 12:1 "Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God-- this is your spiritual act of worship".

How then are we to offer our bodies as living sacrifices to God? Prayerfully consider all the opportunities God has given you to do so. Godly parenting (grand parenting, uncle-ing, aunt-ing, etc), a faithful devotional life, loving your spouse and family above your job, increased worship attendance, faithful giving, sharing time (teaching children?) and talents (special music anyone?), service to church and community, mission, outreach, servant events...and the list could go on and on. All of these things are done out of sheer joy and thanksgiving for the wonderful blessing God gives to us each and everyday. That is, faith! Faith to believe in Christ Jesus our Savior, God's Son who gave His life that we might have life eternal. And you don't even have to do them alone. Remember, I said to prayerfully consider. Ask God for help and guidance and He will grant it to you according to His will. He sacrificed His one and only Son for you, He will certainly therefore help you in your sacrifice in return. He has granted you His Holy Spirit for guidance and strength and promised to be with you always.

God's Blessings be with each and every one of you.
In The Name of Our Risen Lord,
Pastor Todd

July is Trinity's month to run the Madison Food Pantry every Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Any volunteers are welcome!!

Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid
June 19, 2024

Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid met May 19, 2024, at 9:30 am with 8 members answering roll call.

Bev Wolverton opened with prayer and a devotion.

The May minutes were read and approved.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $2,117.80.

OLD BUSINESS:

Napkins, cotton balls, front covers of greeting cards, trimmed stamps, and reams of paper are being collected for the June 27th Norfolk Convention. Brenda and Margo are our delegates.

Drew Oswald's ordination was attended by 196 people and 22 pastors. We fed 123 people in the church basement following the service. We received a check from Brian and Brenda Oswald as a donation for serving the lunch. Thank you Brenda and Brian!

NEW BUSINESS:

Our Ladies Aid group will be making the sandwiches for the July 11, 2024 Blood Drive held at the Charity Hall here in Madison. Workers will meet at the Hall at 10:30 am to prepare the sandwiches. Annie will pick up the ham and deliver it to Betty to trim the ham. Brenda will order the bread, butter and cheese from the grocery store. Margo will provide the sandwich bags and mayonnaise and will pick up the paper products from the banks here in town.

MISSION PROJECT:

A motion was made and seconded to send three $50 checks to the Convention for the In-Gathering for a total of $150 for our Mission project this month. $50 will go to mites, $50 to the Lutheran Schools in the Norfolk zone and $50 for scholarships for church workers.

It was also decided to donate some church cookbooks to the Rescue Mission for their book sale. Lisa Wolken will deliver the cookbooks to the Rescue Mission.

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, July 17, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. in the church basement. We welcome visitors.

We closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Jurgens, Secretary

We are blessed with a wonderful family of brothers and sisters in Christ here at Trinity. It has been a blessing to serve with all of you for the past 15 years. We are praying that God will soon bless you with a new teacher and principal. Justus has agreed to take over the technology committee, and we are confident that he will do a great job.

When we moved to Madison 3 years ago, we never imagined that we would be moving to Missouri already. God has shown us that His plans are often not our plans. We are so very grateful that God placed us to be members here for 15 years. We will miss everyone from church and school and are so appreciative of your love and support for these past years. We are excited to see what Jesus will do through us in Branson, and what He will continue to do here in Madison through all of you!

In God's love and grace,

Verlyn and Emily White

The Rewards of Godliness

It's no secret that you can't bribe your way into heaven. No amount of good works will impress God enough to open heaven's door for their sake. "For the wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23) and the person who "keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it" (James 2:10). Rather, salvation is "the free gift of God ... in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 6:23).

So, your good works won't earn you the reward of heaven. But does that mean that there are no rewards at all? Consider what the Small Catechism says in the "Close of the Commandments":

What does God say about all these commandments?

He says, "I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments." (Ex. 20:5–6)

What does this mean?

God threatens to punish all who break these commandments. Therefore, we should fear His wrath and not do anything against them. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep these commandments. Therefore, we should also love and trust in Him and gladly do what He commands. (SC II)

God promises to bless you in keeping His commandments. What might these blessings be? Well, consider what Paul says about keeping the Fourth Commandment: "Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 'Honor your father and mother' (this is the first commandment with a promise), 'that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land'" (Eph. 6:1–3).

And think about what your life would be like if you went around stealing (breaking the Seventh Commandment), telling lies about people (breaking the Eighth Commandment), and generally being cruel to those around you (breaking all the commandments!). That is obviously not a blessed way to live. In fact, you'd be miserable living that way.

And Jesus says more about what is in store for those who make sacrifices for His sake: "Jesus said to them, 'Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of Man will sit on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for My name's sake, will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life'" (Matt. 19:28–29).

So don't grow impatient in doing good. Follow the Lord who has freely given you everlasting life.

"The kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit, because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God." Romans 14:18
