II. It is not an office. There are only four offices in the church:

Head Eph. 1:22

Oversight 1 Tim. 3:1-7

Deacon 1 Tim. 3:8-13

III. It is not the fruit of the Spirit. These are character traits exhibited by the believers as they grow in Christ. (Gal. 5:22-23)

B. What it is:

A SPIRITUAL GIFT IS A DIVINE DEPOSIT OF SPECIAL ABILITY GIVEN FOR VARIED SERVICE IN EACH TRUE CHRISTIAN IN THE CHURCH.

Gifts take into consideration abilities, strengths and accountability

2. BACKGROUND OF GIFTS

The giving of gifts has its roots in the old Jewish and Eastern traditions as seen in Psalm 68.

3. DISTRIBUTION OF GIFTS

A. Who gives gifts?

Gifts are given by the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:9; Eph. 4:7-11)

B. Who gets gifts?

Each person who has truly repented and has a genuine conversion experience gets at least one gift. (Eph. 4:7; 1 Cor. 12:7,11; 1 Peter 4:10)

C. How are the gifts distributed?

Gifts are distributed by the sovereign grace of God. It is God who decides what should be given and to what measure. (1 Cor.12:11)

D. Could there be differences in the same gift?

1 Cor. 12:4-6. There are varieties of gifts, ministries and effects. Two men may be teachers, but one writes and the other speaks.

One may have a larger measure of evangelism than another.
