Deuteronomy 29-32 reminds us that God's love is faithful. Moses told the Israelites how God had loved and cared for them, even when they made wrong choices. God's love never changes. Kids can know His faithful love is always available to them because of Jesus.

Study

Read: Deuteronomy 29-30

Highlight: Deuteronomy 30:19-20

Reflect: How can you respond to God's faithful love with faithfulness this week?

1. Commit to spending time with Him every day.
2. Commit to changing distracting habits.
3. Commit to attending church and spending time with other Christians.

Pray: Thank You, God, for Your faithful love. Whenever I am tempted to go my own way and follow my own path, help me turn to You. Please help me to faithfully live my life in a way that honors and pleases You. Amen.

Connect: When is it easy and when is it challenging to follow God? What can we practically do to help us follow God regularly?
