THE GOD WHO REDEEMS HIS PEOPLE

A photograph of a desert landscape. The foreground and middle ground are filled with large, light-colored sand dunes with distinct ridges and shadows. In the upper right, a bright, clear blue sky is visible, and in the upper left, there are darker, more textured clouds or a distant mountain range. The overall lighting is bright and natural.

“Course he isn’t safe.
But he is good.”

Central Reality

God is not safe.

Central Idea

A photograph of a vast desert landscape with large sand dunes. A small figure of a person is walking across one of the dunes, emphasizing the scale of the environment. The sky is clear and blue.

The glory of God
shows us the grace of God.

Central Point

We cannot truly understand the depths of the grace of God
without truly understanding the immensity of the glory of God.

God is preparing Israel to live as
His covenant people.

A photograph of a vast desert landscape. In the foreground, a person is walking across a large sand dune. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The sand dunes are a light tan color with darker shadows. The perspective is from a low angle, looking up the slope of the dune.

Israel is to live
in light of the glory of God.

Key Application

We must live
in light of the glory of God.

Exodus 19:16-25

A dramatic landscape featuring a vast, undulating sand dune in the foreground, colored in deep orange and red hues. In the middle ground, a small, dark silhouette of a person stands on a sand dune, looking out over the vast expanse. The background is a dark, textured sky, possibly a sunset or sunrise, with a bright, glowing horizon line. The overall mood is one of awe and the grandeur of nature.

The Glory of God Displayed

Exodus 19:16-20

Our view of God is too small.

“...fearful majesty...”

Job 37:22-23

We cannot domesticate
our God.

The Glory of God Experienced

Exodus 19:16-19

We must see the danger of God's glory as well as the beauty of God's glory.

A photograph of a vast desert landscape. In the foreground, a large sand dune with warm orange and brown tones stretches across the frame. A small, dark silhouette of a person is walking across the dune, emphasizing the scale of the landscape. In the background, a bright blue sky is visible with a few wispy white clouds. The overall scene is one of vastness and tranquility.

Exodus 19:20-25

A photograph of a vast desert landscape with large, smooth sand dunes. The colors are a mix of deep orange and warm yellow. In the lower-left foreground, a small, dark silhouette of a person stands on a dune, looking out over the vast expanse. The sky is a clear, pale blue.

Keep Your Distance!

We have not just personified God.
We have humanized Him.

Without Christ, it is safer to keep our distance from God
than to draw near to Him.

Hebrews 10:28-31

Hebrews
4:14-16 | 7:19, 25
10:1, 22 | 11:6

A photograph of a vast desert landscape with large, smooth sand dunes. The colors are a mix of deep orange and warm yellow. In the middle ground, a small figure of a person is walking across one of the dunes, providing a sense of scale to the enormous sand formations.

Be grateful that God has restrained His majesty. It will not always be so.
