Hebrews 10:11-25

Pew Bible: 1006-1007

We take God seriously.

Danger!

Heavy words can become heavy burdens.

Danger!

Our earnestness and seriousness turn into discouragement and defeat.

“I am not worthy to come to
God because of my sin.

Therefore, I cannot and should not come to God.”

“I am not worthy to come to
God because of my sin.

Therefore, I cannot and should not draw near to God.”

“I am not worthy to come to
God because of my sin.

Therefore, I cannot and should
not draw near to God.”

Half truths are full lies.

Proverbs 18:17

“I am not worthy to come to
God because of my sin.

If I am not in Christ,
therefore, I cannot and should
not draw near to God.”

War weighs heavy on you.

War with sin
weighs heavy on you.

We need to take the Lord's supper together...

Remember!

Christ is the one who not only ultimately delivers us from sin but also helps us in our battle with sin.

Central Truth

The life, death, resurrection, and intercession of Christ does not merely make it possible for us to draw near to God, but it gives us confident assurance that we can and must draw near to God so that we can find rest for our souls from our battle with sin.

Central Application

Do not flee from God
because of your sin.

Flee from sin, trust Christ,
and draw near to God
to find relief from your sin.
