Looking for clarity...

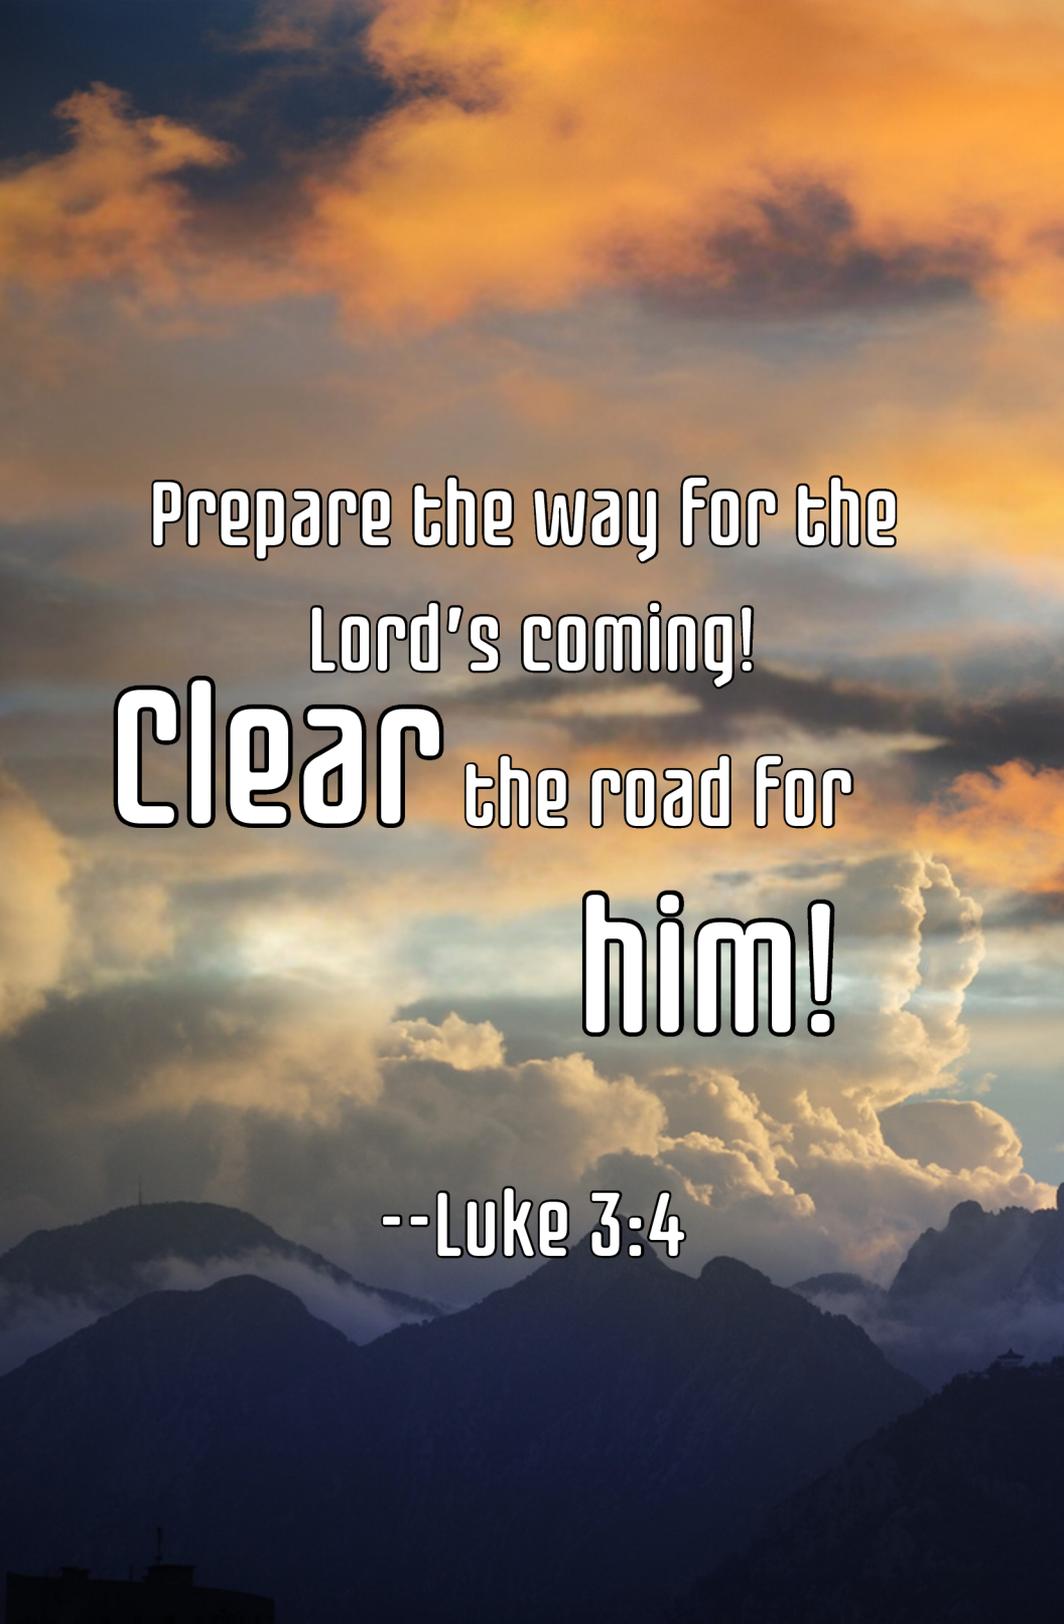

During the season of Lent, we have the opportunity to intentionally slow down and clear away what so often clouds our vision. This is a season of reflection, repentance, and renewed focus—a time to ask what Jesus is making clear in our own lives. In MADE CLEAR, we will walk carefully through the Gospel of Luke, allowing his thoughtful and orderly account of Jesus' life and mission to sharpen our understanding. As Luke brings the story of Christ into focus, we pray that what was made clear then will become clear in us now.

The Gospel of Luke

The Gospel of Luke was written so that readers could know the truth about Jesus with confidence. Luke carefully investigated the events surrounding Christ's life and arranged them in an orderly account, highlighting not only what Jesus did, but why it matters. Throughout this Gospel, we see a Savior who welcomes outsiders, seeks the lost, prays faithfully, moves intentionally toward the cross, and rises in victory. Luke invites us to see Jesus clearly—and in seeing him clearly, to understand ourselves and our hope more fully. As we go through highlights on Sundays and you read the whole gospel over the next 6 weeks, we'll see what Jesus makes clear.
