COLLEGE FIRST
CHURCH OF GOD

Love. Equip. Send.

February 18, 2026

Dear College First family,

Today is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. Like many of you, I never observed Lent growing up. Our small, non-denominational church didn't talk about it except, perhaps, to say it was something "those Catholics" did.

I have grown to appreciate the Christian calendar, the colorful changes in the sanctuary, and the special services such as Maundy Thursday and Pentecost Sunday. There is more to the spiritual seasons than Christmas Eve and Easter Sunday.

Lent is a time to choose to enter the desert, so to speak, as Jesus did. He spent 40 days without food or friends being tested and prepared for what would follow. Growth and comfort cannot coexist. Spiritual maturity is not the result of mere desire. We must engage in spiritual disciplines/rhythms/habits. Pastor Craig Flack from our sister church, Celina Church of God, writes,

Ask the Lord what fasting will look like for you. Maybe it is a certain day of the week. Maybe it is a certain type of food. Our Eastern Orthodox brothers and sisters essentially go vegan all of Lent, for example. Ask the Lord what self denial should look like for you. Maybe it is not commenting on any Facebook posts. Maybe it is ridding yourself of TV or social media altogether. Maybe it is only cold showers or no pillow. Ask the Lord how you should focus more on prayer. Maybe you will partner it with a fast and skip lunch for 40 days to spend that time in focused prayer. Ask the Lord how you should focus more on almsgiving. Maybe you will not go out to lunch for 40 days and instead pack your meals and save the money to give to the local food bank.

I am simply trying to prime the pump. The Lord will lead you if you seek Him. I do know this. The desert should feel like a desert. The first few days will feel exciting. The following 37 will feel like an act of discipline, obedience, and devotion if you hope to continue. The desert is not a vacation. It is hard. It was a test for our Lord. It will be for us too.

I encourage you to join us tonight at 7 PM for our annual Ash Wednesday service. It is important to follow Jesus into the desert, preparing for Good Friday and then the greatest day on the Christian calendar which we will celebrate together on April 5 at the Marathon Center.

On the journey with you,

Kirk

Join Our Nursery Team!

Are you looking for a meaningful way to serve our families? We are looking for a dedicated Nursery Worker to help during our Wednesday night Encounter sessions (6:00–7:30 PM) on the 4th and 5th Wednesdays of each month (when there is a 5th Wednesday). This would be for children birth through toddlers. There would be approximately three children in the room.

By caring for our kiddos, you enable parents to be fed by God's Word in their own small group gathering that will be meeting in the church building. If you love working with children and want to share God's love through your service, we'd love to talk to you!
