A Movement of Prayer for the Entertainment Industry

Dear HPN,

Happy February to you all. While our community continues to pick itself up from the recent fires, many of us watched The Grammys this past Sunday night and celebrated the amazing musical talent of our community. The evening was full of thanks to God, incredible performances and a beautiful focus on honoring LA after the fires. We are thankful for the Grammy's love for our city and their fundraising success to help the fire victims, which raised over $7M just by viewers during the broadcast alone. So, let's start this Black History month and this week with "First and foremost, thanks and praise to the Most High" as said by Kendrick Lamar in his acceptance speech Sunday night for "Record of the Year".

If you or someone you know needs resources post-fire, just click below.
Otherwise, let's PRAY...

HPN's Montage Film Editors Group Takes the "Hollywood Walk of Faith"

We want to praise God for our Film Editor's vocational community group, Montage, and their fearless leader Nicole Baer! Nicole and a group of 13 editors met up with our friend April Clemmer, who took them on a walking tour of the Christian roots of Hollywood. This tour is a treat we recommend for anyone who comes to Hollywood because it gives an inside look into how Hollywood was built by Christians! We are so thankful for April's commitment to offer people this inside scoop and rich history, and for the film editors who meet together every month to encourage each other in their faith and in their profession! *HPN does not condone the music of these artists. We pray for all to truly know Him, and experience true healing, joy, and creativity.

The Grammy Winners

Let's pray for all of the winners of The Grammys after this Sunday's international accolades as they figure out their next steps in their careers. We pray that God will nudge them in their decisions so that they lean on Him and His plan for their lives. We are thankful for those who used their speeches to glorify God – namely, Kendrick Lamar, Beyonce, and Doechii*. Others who walked the red carpet and were a part of the ceremony, stand out to HPN as important people to pray for are Will Smith, Charli XCX, Shakira, Kanye West and his wife Bianca Censori, to name a few. We want each of them to encounter Jesus and allow Him to do a miraculous work in their lives that will display His goodness, and bring them into a relationship with Him. Pray for all the winners at the link.

Pray for Working Artists

We want to pray for the mistreatment of artists in our industry who are making money for the Record Labels, the Studios and the “system”, but struggling with making a living for themselves. Best New Artist Award winner Chapell Roan gave her acceptance speech as a plea to Record Labels to treat their artists well. Please pray for the Labels' decision-makers to boldly change their ways and treat their artists as they would want to be treated.

Changes in Our Industry Affect Every Major City in Our Country

READ MORE

"Last year the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences (AMPAS), the organization that oversees the Oscars, announced that Dallas-Fort Worth would replace Miami as one of six metropolitan areas in the United States where films can qualify for Oscars consideration." And then the Dallas International Film Festival put Dallas on the map for the next fastest growing film city in the US. So, let's pray for Dallas, and the other major film cities, to have people of God be in the leadership roles, for the film industry to be a source of inspiration and financial blessing to the cities, and for more industry professionals to find work all across our nation, especially in LA, where many of the families live.

The 2025 Oscars

Let's kick off prayer for the Oscars, airing on March 3rd on ABC, hosted by Conan O'Brien! With the nominees already announced, now is the perfect opportunity to invite the Lord into "film's biggest night"! Let's pray that many will come to find, acknowledge, and turn to Him in both their personal lives and careers. As the nominees await their fate and Producers assemble their talented teams, including choreographers and crew, we have a powerful chance to intercede. Join us in lifting up the ceremony in prayer, believing that God's presence will shine through and impact everyone involved. And, you can RSVP for our Oscar's viewing party! Together, let's make this a moment filled with hope and divine connection!

Let's pray for everyone involved in America's Got Talent as it embarks on its incredible 20th season! This is a fantastic opportunity to uplift and support the new judges, who will undoubtedly become role models for countless youth across the nation. Let's pray for the judges, the performers, and the entire staff, asking for guidance in their choices and influence. By covering them in prayer, we can help ensure that they create a positive impact on our youth. Together, we can inspire a generation to pursue their dreams with integrity and passion.

Ads For The Super Bowl

The Super Bowl is coming up this Sunday, Feb. 9th and advertisers have shot multi-million dollar ads and then bought millions of dollars of air time to draw in the TV viewers. Pro football is entertainment and the Super Bowl is a huge platform for advertisers. So, as you watch the iconic ads during the game, please pray for the people behind the scenes who work long hours, are away from their families and are pushed, sometimes beyond their human capacity, in order to get these ads on the screen. There is so much going on behind the scenes of any major international event and we want the Lord to care for the people along the way and to have them turn to Him in the process:

"We can know that in the beginning there was God and not just some cosmic upheaval that brought light out of darkness, only when we have experienced Him doing the same thing in our lives, our world--bringing light out of our darkness."

"For God, who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ."
