A Movement of Prayer for the Entertainment Industry

Greetings HPN members,

It's APRIL! Passover and Easter, the celebration of Jesus' death and resurrection, is approaching! We encourage you to spend more time with God during this Lenten season, and to pray for the spiritual needs of the artists in Hollywood who are impacting the world.

Recently, we shared a prayer request for a celebrity on Facebook. One of the comments in response was "There are few actors I would ever pray for, but that celebrity is one of them." In this Easter season, let's all be mindful that we don't pray for people because they need it or deserve it; we pray for Hollywood because Jesus died for every person ever born – from celebrities to the homeless! Jesus' death and resurrection wouldn't mean anything if it was just for a certain type of person or profession. We praise God that Jesus is the King for ALL people!

Just this last week we had the Oscars and the Grammys and they were both very telling about how America's entertainers are impacting our culture with their creative work and their lives! Let's pray together now, inviting God into our creative community...

Updates

Denzel Washington

The world just experienced a WILD Academy Awards week-end. Everyone has heard about the Will Smith/Chris Rock encounter, but what you may not know is that the first two people to go straight to Will Smith during the commercial break were Denzel Washington and Tyler Perry, two strong Christians who prayed with and for Will at that moment. Let's praise God for believers like these two men of integrity and ask God to keep using people like Denzel and Tyler, to touch the hearts and lives of their friends, associates, and co-workers. We also want to honor Denzel Washington and his perspective on life and celebrity:

HPN had an exciting OSCARS week! On Thursday, March 24th, just 3 days before the Oscars, we had 54 people walk the red carpet of the Dolby Theatre and pray for everyone who would show up that Sunday for the awards. We got to talk to at least 8 security guards – all of whom were Christians – and pray over the land. It was a powerful evening and the foundation for answered prayers on Sunday!

On Oscars Sunday, a gathering of 120 people came together at FPCH church campus, to enjoy watching the Oscars together. It was a fun night of celebration and we were surely the only Oscars party in town that stopped and prayed for Will Smith and Chris Rock immediately after their encounter!

Rooftop Encounter

Then on Monday night, March 28th, 30 prayer warriors showed up on the rooftop of CBS Television City to pray for Hollywood and our industry. We had a Rooftop Encounter with the Lord and prayed to hear His voice and to be used by Him to make more of an eternal impact on our city and our industry. It was a powerful night. Check out Rooftop Encounters, and listen to their latest podcast interview with HPN member and actor Hiram Murray:

The Grammys 2022, Stephen Sondheim Honored

Sunday night, April 3rd was the 64th annual Grammy's Awards (link to winners). Hosted by comedian Trevor Noah, they celebrated the best of our culture's music on CBS. It had incredible musical performances in 83 categories, including the best of American Pop, Rock, R&B, Rap, Gospel, Hip Hop, K-Pop, Latin, Classical, Country, Folk, Alternative, Contemporary Christian, and Bluegrass. We want to pray for our country's musicians and for all of the Christians there, regardless of whether they won or lost, and those who are sharing the love of Jesus throughout the music world. Let's keep praying for the Lord to be lifted up in recording studios globally! A highlight was a song honoring the late Stephen Sondheim:

HONORING STEPHEN SONDHEIM

Congratulations Troy Kotsur!

We want to celebrate actor Troy Kotsur from CODA (which won Best Picture) for winning Best Supporting Actor, and for also making history as the very first deaf actor to do so! In fact, he is the first deaf male actor to EVER win an Oscar, and we're so happy for him. We also want to highlight Troy's manager and HPN member Mark Finley, who has supported Troy all throughout his career! Let's pray for Mark and Troy:

Bruce Willis

Pray for Bruce Willis who just retired from acting because he has recently been diagnosed with Aphasia. It's a devastating disease so we want the Lord to touch his heart and embrace Bruce as he adjusts to a new normal. May the Lord turn this into good in Bruce's life and the lives of his family and close friends, and that Bruce experiences His unconditional love and healing. This is the time when people ask the deeper questions and we want Bruce to find HIS answers!

Planet Comic Con

Let's pray for the people attending Planet Comic Con next month in Kansas City. Planet Comicon Kansas City is the region's largest and longest-running pop culture and comic book convention, spanning nearly 8 football fields and featuring more than 100 celebrity, cosplayer and comic creator guests. We want the Lord's presence to take over this gathering and move people a step closer to Him in an environment they least expect to encounter God! Let's also pray for the guest speakers and participants, who are professionals in all areas of global entertainment:

The HPN Podcast: Hollywood Changemakers with Nancy Vuu

WATCH THE EPISODE

IN 2021, our HPN interns helped us launch our podcast – Hollywood Changemakers! In the months since, we have been interviewing industry creatives in film, fashion, and soon music – to hear their perspective on how they live their lives as Christians in our secular entertainment industry. Last month Kelry interviewed fashion designer Nancy Vuu, a committed believer who entrusts every career move to the Holy Spirit, and has seen God do miracles. We invite you to watch this episode on our Youtube Channel! It's a beautiful story of her life as a Christian in fashion!

Phil Collins

For all of you Phil Collins fans, we ask that you pray that the Lord reveals himself to Phil in the last season of his life. He announced on March 17th in France, that due to too many health issues, he can't perform or even play drums anymore. So, we want the Lord to radically touch his heart so that Phil falls in love with Jesus in this season of retirement and contemplation. A miraculous conversation can impact Phil, other musicians and audiences all over the world!

Thank you so much for praying for us this week. May you have a glorious Easter and we ask that you pray for our Good Friday Worship and Baptism Night for our Christian creative community. We will be gathering on Good Friday evening, praising God and baptizing people who are ready to make that public commitment – in Hollywood!

Have a blessed Easter and we'll be back in two weeks!

With love,
Karen and Kelry

Scripture

"As for you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good."
-- 2 Thess. 3:13

Quote

"In the same way a Christian is not a man who never goes wrong, but a man is enabled to repent and pick himself up and begin over again after each stumble--because the Christ-life is inside him, repairing him all the time, enabling him to repeat (in some degree) the kind of voluntary death which Christ Himself carried out."
— C.S. Lewis

HPN YouVersion Weekly Devotional: Salvation

The Great Commission is to go out and tell the Good News of the Gospel to the people in our sphere of influence. But that's hard to do. This week we'll focus on the power, the joy and the eternal difference you can make by stepping out of your comfort zone and talking about Jesus, without freaking out.
– Karen Covell

Re-Igniting the Passion for Prayer

HPN's dear friend, a missionary and minister in some of the most dangerous, war-ridden areas of Africa, wanted to share a special message with our community about Re-Igniting the Passion for Prayer. Carole has seen innumerable miracles including sicknesses healed and even people raised from the dead! Some months ago she visited Hollywood and recorded a PODCAST EPISODE with Karen as well. We love her heart for the Lord and encourage you to listen to this message from a recent gathering:
