A Movement of Prayer for the Entertainment Industry

Dear HPN,

Welcome to October. It's a month of changed seasons, so let's believe that it's also a season of changed hearts! We anticipate miracles from the Lord and we want to start with a song that will bring you right into the presence of the Lord as you pray through today's Prayer Call Sheet. HPN member and friend Megan Tibbits just recorded an official cover of "Agnus Dei" and it was released last Friday. She sings and plays the harp and you will be deeply moved by it as you pray and celebrate the talent the Lord has given her in our industry! LISTEN TO MEGAN'S RENDITION HERE!

Let's listen and pray...

Justin and Hailey Bieber

Lets pray for Justin and Hailey Bieber and their new baby boy, Jack Blues Bieber. They are praising God for this miraculous baby boy and we want to join them in praise. Also, Justin is also being bold in coming out publicly with horrific things he's experienced in the industry. So we want to pray for God's unconditional love, healing, covering and strength in his journey. The enemy's whole purpose is to steal, kill and destroy Christians, but our prayers can stop him. As you watch one of Justin's recent interview here, be sure to pray for his physical and mental health and that he receives freedom and healing from his past. We pray God's blessings on Justin, Hailey and their whole family!

Updates

100 Film Fund for AI

Runway, a major New York based AI company, is offering up $1 million each to 100 production companies, if they will produce a feature film powered by Artificial Intelligence content. This new technology is being pushed forward in our industry and so we ask you to continue praying for the people behind the AI scenes. We still don't know the full potential of AI, and yet, because it's the newest and greatest technology we have, it's on the forefront of creative conversations and cultural impact. May the Lord guide the decisions and may the Holy Spirit lead this technology in our world today.

Requests

The Victims of Sean "Diddy" Combs

We ask for prayers for the many victims of abuse, trafficking, and exploitation at the hands of Sean "Diddy" Combs and his associates. As more details are uncovered about the explosive allegations surrounding Comb's "empire," our hearts go out to those (both famous and not famous) who have endured traumatic events that will now be re-lived as more darkness is uncovered in the coming court cases. Please pray for the victims, their families, and for the Christian Hollywood community to support and surround those who are searching for safety, healing, peace and hope during this time.

Ellen DeGeneres

Let's pray for Ellen DeGeneres. She has been a controversial figure in our culture for decades and then ended poorly in the industry because of allegations about her behind-the-scenes behavior. Now at 66, Ellen struggles with osteoporosis, arthritis and other health issues. May the Lord use this time to point Ellen to Him, to let her know that as she ages, He is the only one who can fill her up, give her peace, and most of all, give her a hope for her future. And may our prayers make a difference.

Grace VanderWaal

Please pray for the America's Got Talent winner, Grace VanderWaal, who has grown up in the eight years since her winning performance on AGT at 12 years old. It's very difficult for child stars to transition into adulthood with the world watching, so we ask that Grace finds her identity in the God who created her and loves her so much. We ask that she not feel the pressure to be or act a certain way, but that she can be secure in who the Lord made her to be. As you pray, read her story:

Hollywood is mourning the recent loss of these Icons:

Dame Maggie Smith:

The iconic British actress (Harry Potter & Downton Abby) who died Sept. 27th. We want to honor her, her career and her life. She has touched hearts all over the world and so we thank the Lord for giving her the gifts and talents she used to bring joy to audiences across the globe.

John Amos:

A great American actor (Good Times & Roots) who died on Aug. 21st at 84. He risked his career to protest the demeaning portrayal of black characters on TV.

Kris Kristofferson:

American singer/songwriter/actor ("Me and Bobby McGee" and "Help Me Make it Through the Night") died on Sept. 28th at the age of 88. He has been an icon of country music since the early 1970s and recorded his songs with all of the other greats in music. And 12 of his songs became country classics.

Let's pray for Maggie's, John's and Kris' family, friends and fans to find peace, comfort and love through Jesus. Death is not as sad when we know heaven is our home!

Scripture

Weekly Devotional: Anger

This week we're focusing on ANGER! An emotion that's swept our culture. God tells us not to let the sun go down on our anger and that anger turns us into "mockers" and fools. So, we want to be honest about our own anger and ask the Lord to heal us; transforming us into peacemakers. Let go of anger and embrace God's promise to find wisdom and peace in Him!

Jumping The Path 10-Week Monday Night Course Begins Oct. 7, 2024

"Jumping the Path" explores the intersections of spiritual formation and creativity by engaging you in rhythms of both. As human beings, all of us are creative (which includes much more than just artistic pursuits), and all of us are being spiritually formed (whether we recognize it or not) all the time. The purpose of this learning lab/community is to intentionally pursue both pathways simultaneously to experience how they inform and shape one another and how they both play a role in growing our souls. Presented by David Cobia.
