Randy Travis Releases a Song with AI

Randy Travis produced a new song this year, "Where That Came From," with AI vocals — which his team says is the first artificial intelligence song ever recorded and released with artist involvement and consent. In 2013, Randy suffered a near fatal stroke that resulted in aphasia, a disorder that took away most of his ability to speak and sing. Yet he was determined to remain in the country music world, so he was on TV this week and it was remarkable seeing how AI is opening minds and opportunities in a positive way. Pray for Randy to continue to overcome his physical limitations and glorify God in the process!

Golden Globe Nominations

The nominations were announced last week for The 82nd Annual Golden Globes Awards, which airs on CBS at 5pm PST, January 5th 2025. The Golden Globes®, often referred to as "Hollywood's Party of the Year®," is the largest awards show in the world to celebrate the best of both film and television. This year's show will be hosted by comedian Nikki Glaser. Please pray for Nikki and all the nominees because we want the Lord to define and reveal their true identity and value through His love. We don't want these talented people to get their value just through winning awards! Here is the list of nominations:

Macaulay Culkin Has Grown Up

Macaulay Culkin is now the father of two little boys and is celebrating Christmas with them and their mother. He has come a long way since Home Alone and the subsequent dark years of drugs, alcohol and emotional struggles. But he has come out of that and is celebrating fatherhood to his two boys. Let's continue to pray for Macaulay as he experiences the miracle of being a dad! May the Lord grab his heart and fill him with love, joy and peace this Christmas!
