

ADDITIONAL DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Chapter 3

1. Think about your prayer life. When do you find yourself praying with most urgency?
2. What can we learn from Christ's example as we wrestle between our will vs. God's will?
3. A.W. Tozer said, "As God is exalted to the right place in our lives, a thousand problems are solved all at once" (p. 79). What do you think this means?
4. Reflect on this quote: "[we can] do the social Christian life, talk about topics instead of the real heart problems" (p.79). Are your friendship conversations God-honoring? Is it okay to include both lighthearted talk and spiritual conversations?
5. Reflect on this quote: "Whatever takes us away from the pursuit of holiness has to go, no matter how appealing" (p. 80). What in life can threaten to take us away from holiness? What does it look like to surrender those things to God? Why is surrender worth it?

6. How can we work through the fear of telling people the truth if it's a hard truth to hear?

7. What in this chapter challenged you? What encouraged you?
