

Observing Lent

Today you are receiving a cross of ashes on a burlap bag. These are traditional symbols of repentance and mourning.

In Job 2:7-8: So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes.

In Jonah 3:4-6: Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

In Luke 10:13 and Matthew 11:21: "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had been performed in Tyre and Sidon which occurred in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Use the sackcloth and ashes as a reminder of God's great love for us, that though we do not deserve it, we have been rescued from sin, death and destruction. Like Ninevah, we have been saved by a loving God who hears our cries of repentance and mercy. And then be reminded that we are supposed to do likewise. Live in focused celebration this Lent of the ways that God has pulled us out of despair and brings us hope. Live into that hope so others may share in it.

Welcome/Announcements

*Call to Worship

Leader: Children of God, we gather to prepare for our journey through Lent, a journey of repentance and mercy.

People: We gather to be renewed in God's mercy.

Leader: We gather to confess, to tell the truth about sin and our dependence on God's grace.

People: We gather to call upon God's mercy.

Leader: We gather to repent, to receive and cooperate with grace as we turn from sin and toward love of God and neighbor.

People: We gather to live in the promise of God's mercy.

Leader: People of God, we gather to worship God, whose steadfast mercy and love never fail!

People: We gather to worship, trusting in God's mercy as we follow Jesus on the road to new life. Amen.
