Verse 1:

G                      C                      G                      D
Come and see, in Bethlehem, in a manger for a throne;
G                      C                      G              D              G
King of Kings, come to us, as a ransom for His own.

Chorus:

G              D/F# Em              C
Oh, come and sing to Christ our King.
G      D              C
All glory to His name!
G              D/F#              Em              C
The Spotless Lamb, the Great I Am,
G              D              G
is worthy of all praise!

Verse 2:

G                      C                      G                      D
Come and see Who we have found, One Whom prophets longed to see.
G                      C                      G              D G
The Promised Seed, come to us, sent to crush the enemy.

[Chorus]

Bridge:

C                      Em                      D/F#                      G
The blood He shed speaks for us, ringing out like silver bells.
Declaring now our freedom found; our souls will sing, "It is well!"
C                      Em                      D/F#                      G
The blood He shed speaks for us, ringing out like silver bells.
Declaring now our freedom found; our souls will sing, "It is well!"
C              D
It is well!

Verse 3:

G                      C                      G                      D
Come and see the Risen One, Who in heaven ever stands.

G                      C                      G                      D                      G
Our High Priest lives for us pleading with His nail-pierced hands.

[Chorus]
