“For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.”

Psalm 139:13–14

The God Without Limits

Psalm 139

“How precious to me are your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them! Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand - when I awake, I am still with you.”

Psalm 139:17-18

God is limitless.

“Can you fathom the depths of God or discover the limits of the Almighty? They are higher than the heavens—what can you do? They are deeper than Sheol—what can you know? Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.” Job 11:7-9

God is limitless.

“Can you fathom the depths of God or discover the limits of the Almighty? They are higher than the heavens—what can you do? They are deeper than Sheol—what can you know? Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.” Job 11:7-9

“But will God really dwell on earth? The heavens, even the highest heaven, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built!” 1 Kings 8:27

God is incomprehensible.

“Your knowledge is beyond my comprehension; it is so far beyond me, I am unable to fathom it.”

Psalm 139:6

“Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no one can fathom.”

Psalm 145:3

While we cannot know God fully,
we can know Him truly.

“How precious to me are your thoughts,
God! How vast is the sum of them!”

Psalm 139:17

Knowing God truly: God is good.

“Taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed is the one who takes refuge in him.”
Psalm 34:8

Knowing God truly:

God is good.

God is love.

We can know God truly,
but we will never know Him fully.

Our limitations are not weaknesses to be shed
but gifts to be embraced.

Our limitations are gifts to be embraced because they cause us to rely on God.

“Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting”

Psalm 139:23–24

We rely on a God who will forever amaze us.

“How precious to me are your thoughts, God!
How vast is the sum of them! Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand
- when I awake, I am still with you.”

Psalm 139:17-18
