Samson: A Warning and A Hope

Judges 13:3-5, 16:25-30

“The angel of the Lord appeared to the woman and said to her, “Although you are unable to conceive and have no children, you will conceive and give birth to a son. Now please be careful not to drink wine or beer, or to eat anything unclean; for indeed, you will conceive and give birth to a son. You must never cut his hair, because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from birth, and he will begin to save Israel from the power of the Philistines.”

Judges 13:3-5

The background features a stylized illustration of Samson's birth. A central figure, a woman, is shown in profile, holding a large, dark, rounded object (representing Samson) above her head with both arms. She is surrounded by several other figures, some of whom are holding up large, light-colored, triangular or diamond-shaped objects, possibly representing the Philistines or the birth scene. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of orange, yellow, and brown.

Sacrificial Death
Judges 16:25-30

“While they were in high spirits, they shouted, “Bring out Samson to entertain us.” So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. When they stood him among the pillars, Samson said to the servant who held his hand, “Put me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them.” Now the temple was crowded with men and women;

all the rulers of the Philistines were there, and on the roof were about three thousand men and women watching Samson perform. Then Samson prayed to the Lord, "Sovereign Lord, remember me. Please, God, strengthen me just once more, and let me with one blow get revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes." Then Samson reached toward the two central pillars on which the temple stood.

Bracing himself against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other, Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" Then he pushed with all his might, and down came the temple on the rulers and all the people in it. Thus he killed many more when he died than while he lived."

Three steps to returning to God:

Humble yourself and recognize your need for God.

Repent, turning away from your sin and pride towards God.

Confess by calling your sin what it is and admit your need for God.
