*Hymn #339

Be Thou My Vision

1. Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
Nought be all else to me, save that Thou art--
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.
2. Riches I heed not, nor vain, empty praise,
Thou mine inheritance, now and always:
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart,
Great God of heaven, my treasure Thou art.
3. Be Thou my wisdom, and Thou my true word;
I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord;
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Most Holy God, we must confess that we like to have it both ways. We want to have our cake and eat it, too. We like serving multiple masters. We like worshipping you on Sunday while putting our own wants and desires before you the rest of the week. Yet, Jesus tells us that no one can serve two masters. Give us strength and courage to get our priorities straight and to seek your kingdom first. Help us to bury any lingering selfish desires that prevent us from selflessly serving you and your kingdom. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Philippians 4:4-9

<sup>5</sup> Who is like the Lord our God, who is seated on high, <sup>6</sup> who looks far down on the heavens and the earth? <sup>7</sup> He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap, <sup>8</sup> to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people. <sup>9</sup> He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children. Praise the Lord!

Luke 16:1-13

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. <sup>2</sup> So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management because you cannot be my manager any longer.' <sup>3</sup> Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' <sup>5</sup> So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' <sup>6</sup> He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' <sup>7</sup> Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' <sup>8</sup> And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly, for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. <sup>9</sup> And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

<sup>10</sup> “Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much, and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. <sup>11</sup> If, then, you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? <sup>12</sup> And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? <sup>13</sup> No slave can serve two masters, for a slave will either hate the one and love the other or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

Jackye Cannon

Accounting

I have worked in the FPC Accounting office since January, 2011, handling Accounts Payable for the church. I have been a member of the church for 30 years and love this church. I have served as an Elder and served on the Discipleship and Worship Ministries. My greatest blessing was the involvement with Grief Share. I love working in the office and interacting with other staff members, the different ministry chairs and FPC members who carry out the work of the church.

Shirley Dukes

Parish Nurse

The Parish Nurse position was established about 2011 as a vocational role. During the first years, we did blood pressure and diabetes screenings and provided access to flu shots. In recent years, the role has been one mostly concerning medical referrals, clarifying and explaining medical lingo, responding to medical emergencies, keeping track of our medical equipment, and working with Care & Prayer. I just renewed my Texas State Nursing License! Good for another 2 years!

Rolethial McKelvey

Accompanist

I have worked at the church for two years. My current role is as the church pianist and I provide service music.

On a personal note, I have made it my mission to help the youth in one of the most ancient villages in Nigeria, Africa.

Church Staff 2024

Jane Corbit

Accounting

I have been working in the accounting department with Jackye Cannon since January 2011. I take care of deposits, bank statements, reports and running statements for everyone. I have always liked accounting and I like working in the office. I have been a member of FPC for almost 30 years.

I have had White Fox Travel for 40 years. I really enjoy traveling and helping other FPC members with their travel needs.

Bonnie Hernandez

Music Director

I have been working at the church for four months as the music and handbells director.

When I am not working, I love the outdoors especially hiking.

As a side note, I want everyone to know that there is a place for them in choir and handbells.

Yvonne Rose

Office Manager

I have been working in the church office for seven years, first as office assistant, then as office manager. My job is to keep the office functioning smoothly, be of assistance to the Pastor and to coordinate with others. I also help members when they need assistance or information.

I retired from 32 years of nursing. I joined FPC in 2011 and became an office volunteer, not knowing it would lead to a new career and the best job I ever had!

Church Staff 2024 (Cont'd)

Dena Sowden

Director of Christian Education

I have been working at FPC for five years, where I assist the Senior Pastor with overseeing the ministry of Christian Education and implementing a well-rounded, Biblically oriented, Christ-centered program of meaningful and spiritually challenging activities.

On a personal note, I love my work with the youth and I love to spend time with my family doing anything outdoors. I also know that I am so blessed to be married to my best friend.

Linda Terbl

Nursery Attendant

This is my 19th year at FPC.

My goal is to greet the kids with a smile and keep them happy and safe while in my care.

On a personal note, I am a member of the VFW Auxiliary. I'm the treasurer and I have a passion for veterans. In my spare time, I crochet mats for the homeless out of grocery bags.

Sharon VanSchuyver

Director of Communications

I have worked at FPC for 10 years now in various capacities. At this time, my primary function is to create publications for the church, which includes postcards, ads, bulletins, newsletters and all orders of worship, along with handling other payroll and financial matters.

Although life has taken me away from Conroe, I greatly value the blessing of my job and I miss my FPC friends very much!

Wednesday Night Live Class

For the Bible Tells Me So: A Brief History of Biblical Scholarship and Translation

The Holy Bible is the central text of the Christian faith. The 66 books of the Old and New Testaments represent God's Word, God's special revelation, and the saving knowledge of the person and work of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Originally written primarily in Hebrew and Greek, the Bible has been translated into every language under the sun. Since the 16th century, there have been over 900 English translations of the Bible produced.

How did this hodgepodge collection of ancient texts make its way into the Bible that we know and love today? Who decided which books were included and which books were left out? Why are there so many different translations? Are some translations better than others?

Join Pastor Seth Saathoff as we explore these questions and more. During this class, we will examine the formation of the Biblical canon, the history of English translations of the Bible, the genesis of modern Biblical scholarship and textual criticism, and the challenges of modern translation.

Help for the Hearing Impaired

We understand that the sound in the sanctuary is not ideal for those who are hearing impaired. For this, you can use a personal sound amplifier, which is available at the sound booth. This device will assist you in hearing the message more clearly and should help to avoid some of the feedback and interference we experience on occasion. We appreciate your help with this.

Russo's Pizza Joins PDS for Spirit Day

Who doesn't like pizza? Who doesn't love PDS? Talk about a winning combo! Please plan to help support PDS, on October 10th, by ordering pizza from Russo's Pizza (right across the street in the HEB shopping center). A percentage of the proceeds will benefit Presbyterian Day School, so it's a win-win. Thanks in advance for your support.

For Pastoral Care, Contact Rev. Callie Candee

Greetings from Reverend Callie Candee! I'm so grateful to have been asked to assist with pastoral care duties here at First Presbyterian Church-Conroe. I'll be available for phone and home visits. I'm carrying the church's emergency phone and can be contacted directly at (936) 290-4535.

A Note from the Saathoffs

Dear FPC Family:

Since our arrival just a few weeks ago, our family has been blown away by this congregation's generosity. I know my words will be woefully insufficient to properly convey our gratitude, but here goes nothing:

Thank you to everyone who brought us a home-cooked meal or paid for our meal when our cupboards were bare.

Thank you to everyone who helped fill up our cupboards by participating in the "pounding" last Sunday.

Thank you to everyone who wrote heartfelt cards of welcome.

And thank you to everyone who prayed for us over these last several weeks since I was elected as your pastor.

It is a great honor, privilege, and joy to live and serve alongside you.

In grace and gratitude,

The Saathoff Family

Christmas Boxes for the Houston International Seafarers' Center

Presbyterian Women fill, wrap and deliver shoe boxes with toiletries and personal items to the Seafarers' Center for ships that visit Houston in the weeks before Christmas, as part of a city-wide faith community outreach project for (mostly) men who are, by occupation, almost always away from their own homes in the holiday season. Congregation-wide support is what makes it possible for us to meet a goal of 100 boxes. If you would like to make a contribution toward the purchase of items for the boxes, please make checks payable to the church with a notation that it is for "Seafarer's boxes." Shopping will be underway through October; with packing day on November 7. Please call the church office (936) 756- 8884 or Susan Buckley (936) 520-6930 for information.

Volunteer Church Historian Needed

First Presbyterian Church is in need of a church historian that has an extensive background at FPC-Conroe. An immediate need for this role is to organize pictures that have been given to the church over the last several decades and possibly put them on display. Additional requests will be identified as things progress. If you are interested in helping out, please contact Yvonne at yrose@fpcconroe.org.
