Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven.
A time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to harvest.

Thankful for the bountiful harvest we have received, we plant seeds for future generations to reap.

Giving thanks to God, we give just as we have received.

With heart, soul, mind, and voice:

Let us worship God!

*Hymn #561

My Country, 'Tis of Thee

1. My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountainside
Let freedom ring.

3. Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4. Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

*Please stand if able.

*Call to Confession

*Silent Prayer of Confession

*Assurance of Pardon

The Lord is our chosen cup and portion. Because He is merciful, our hearts and tongues rejoice, for the Lord has shown us the way of life and filled us with the joy of His presence.

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel:

Because of Christ's great love for us, we are forgiven!

America the Beautiful

1. O beautiful for spacious skies,
for amber waves of grain;
for purple mountain majesties
above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea.

2. O beautiful for heroes proved
in liberating strife,
who more than self their country loved,
and mercy more than life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
and every gain divine.

3. O beautiful for patriot dream
that sees beyond the years
thine alabaster cities gleam,
undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
confirm thy soul in self-control,
thy liberty in law.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Holy God, we confess our doubts. When our childhood understandings fall away, we feel naked. When our long-held beliefs seem to crumble, we feel lost. When our convictions are questioned, we feel ashamed.

Guide us into right paths, O God. Guide our feet into the way of peace; guide our hands to care for others; guide our hearts to love our neighbors.

Call us back to You, O Christ, and renew our faith. When the ground is unsteady, loving God, put us back on right paths by doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with You. Amen.

Where You have set Your feet May I place mine;
And move and march wherever You have trod,
Keeping face forward up the hill of God.
2. Give me the heart to hear Your voice and will,
That without fault or fear I may fulfill
Your purpose with a glad and holy zest,
Like one who would not bring less than the best.
3. Christ of the upward way, My guide divine,
Where you have set your feet May I place mine;
And when your last call comes serene and clear,
Calm may my answer be, "Lord, I am here."

till we meet at Jesus' feet,

This Week's Scripture Readings

Psalm 16

¹ Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge. ² I say to the Lord,
"You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you."

³ As for the holy ones in the land, they are the noble ones in whom is all my delight.

⁴ Those who choose another god multiply their sorrows; their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names upon my lips.

⁵ The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot.

⁶ The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; I have a goodly heritage.

⁷ I bless the Lord, who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me. ⁸ I keep the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

⁹ Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also rests secure. ¹⁰ For you do not give me up to Sheol or let your faithful one see the Pit.

¹¹ You show me the path of life. In your presence there is fullness of joy; in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

2 Corinthians 9:6-15

⁶ The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. ⁷ Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not regretfully or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. ⁹ As it is written,

"He scatters abroad; he gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever."

¹⁰ He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. ¹¹ You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us, ¹² for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. ¹³ Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your partnership with them and with all others, ¹⁴ while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. ¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

Notes

Stewardship Season

Reverend Seth Saathoff kicked off our Stewardship Season on October 27 with an inspiring sermon that connected the stories of our FPC-Conroe church founders and later church generations to the stories we are writing today. As we read in Ecclesiastes, there is meant to be within our church an ongoing cycle of planting so that we, as the body of Christ, can be part of the harvest for God's kingdom.

You should soon (if you haven't already) receive a letter from our pastor thanking you for your support and encouraging you to prayerfully consider making a financial pledge to FPC-Conroe in 2025. A pledge card and proposed operating budget with a letter from our Treasurer, Fred Kate, is also included. If you have any questions about the proposed budget, please feel free to contact Fred by email at fhkate@yahoo.com.

November 17 has been set aside for Dedication Sunday where we will commit our offerings to our church for the Lord's work. Please pray for God's guidance for what He is calling you to give for the coming year.

"A time to plant, and a time to harvest." - Ecclesiastes 3:2b

Poinsettias are $15 each. Order forms can be found on page 19 of this bulletin or at the Welcome Desk. You may turn them in at the church office or in the offering basket.

A Handful of Weeds

A young, poor girl was on her way to church on Christmas Eve. She had no money for a Christmas gift for the church; so on her way to mass, she stopped and picked a handful of “weeds” from the side of the dusty road. The girl brought the native Mexican “weeds” into the church and set them on the altar during the service. The “weeds” burst into brilliant, bright red color as they lay in the church.

Since then, poinsettias, which require short days to bloom, have been a traditional part of the people's holiday.

The legend above was derived centuries ago in Mexico and might explain why many people today still use the poinsettia to decorate their home during the Advent season.

We, at First Presbyterian Church, will fill our sanctuary with poinsettias during the Advent season because of their vibrant colors. The red symbolizes God's love for us and the green symbolizes everlasting life.

To help us bring these meanings to life in the church, you may purchase a poinsettia in memory or in honor of a loved one, a special occasion or a relevant event. Simply complete the information below, and enclose $15 for each poinsettia. Place your form and cash/check in the collection plate or return to the church office by November 26. Thank you.
