Adult Education Opportunities 2024 - 2025

Welcome to an enriching year of Adult Christian Education! Our calendar for 2024-25 is packed with thought-provoking classes, discussions, and events designed to deepen your faith and understanding.

Classes are held on Sundays at 9am in Room 222 and on Zoom. Take a closer look at what's in store:

The Bible in One Hand, the Newspaper in the Other

August 18 – September 1

Our Sunday School discussion comes to life with lessons taken from this week's headlines. Join us as we talk about what's happening and what our faith has to say about it.

Wrestling with Doubt, Finding Faith

September 8 – October 13

Dive into a compelling series with author and pastor Adam Hamilton as he addresses significant sources of doubt. Discover how a trust in God, unafraid of hard questions, can emerge from these challenges. This class emphasizes belief and trust over certainty, and embraces the mystery of faith.

The Last Lecture Series

October 20 and 27

Join Dr. William Ausich and Dr. Paul Beck, both esteemed WPC members, as they present their "last lectures." What final message will they share? Reflect on their distinguished careers and gain insights from their experiences.

The Book of Forgiving

November 3 - 24

Explore the profound wisdom of Archbishop Desmond Tutu and his daughter Mpho in their book, The Book of Forgiving. This is a practical and wise book with spiritual practices to help us travel with them on the path of healing and forgiveness, being very clear about what forgiveness is NOT.

Advent Bible Study

December 1, 8, 15, 22

Prepare spiritually for Christmas with our Advent Bible Study series. Reflect on the season and the coming of our Lord and Savior.

Artificial Intelligence: A Conversation with Dr. Ness B. Shroff

Tuesday, December 3 at 7pm

Engage in a fascinating discussion with Dr. Shroff, a leading expert on AI and its societal impacts. This event promises to be both informative and thought-provoking. Sponsored by Presbyterian Women United.

The Bible in One Hand, the Newspaper in the Other

January 5-12

How to Know a Person: The Art of Seeing Others Deeply and Being Deeply Seen

January 19 - February 23

NY Times bestselling author David Brooks presents a hopeful approach to human connection. Based on his book, this class helps us navigate a fragmented society and fosters deeper connections within our community.

The Bible in One Hand, the Newspaper in the Other

March 2

Signs and Wonders: A Beginner's Guide to the Miracles of Jesus

March 9 – April 13

For our Lenten study, renowned biblical scholar Amy-Jill Levine explores the miracles of Jesus. Through her book and video presentations, gain historical insights and contemporary meanings of these miraculous events.

Everywhere Is Jerusalem

April 27 - May 18

Join James Howell on a spiritual pilgrimage as he connects biblical stories with their geographical settings. We'll go from Bethlehem to Jerusalem, from the Jordan River to Assisi, and from the Sea of Galilee to Montgomery, Alabama. Discover how these profound connections call us to live out our faith in our own communities.
