Ministry Reports

Bill Saunders, Congregational Life Chair

Sarah Wilson, Education Chair

David Frost, Engagement Chair

Jim Dobbins, Mission & Outreach Chair

Jacquelyn McAbee, Worship Chair

Bill Saunders presented an update on Congregational Life. He reflected many of the robust items noted in his report in the Consent Agenda, reflecting on the breadth of activities and events both conducted and pending within the congregation.

Sarah Wilson provided an Education update. She began by thanking the Personnel Committee for their work in support of the education goals. Wilson noted that the Education Committee is actively looking for ways to enhance volunteer engagement. She also shared the creation of an inclusion sub-committee to be led by Michelle Beatty with Amanda Shanks providing guidance. Wilson concluded her report by reading from a Lenten devotion she had written and encouraged the Session members to invest the time to write and submit their own to Mary Kate Sykes.

David Frost provided an update on Engagement. He noted member joiner/transfer counts for January (60 and 8, respectively). He described strong interest by new members to be paired with longer-term members to find pathways into the life of the congregation. The new member form will be updated with an option of seeking such a pairing and Lora Borrelli and David Frost will facilitate matches. Finally, Frost encouraged Session members to join the Sunday 10:30 new joiner gatherings in the Parlor.

Jim Dobbins shared an update on Mission & Outreach. He shared enthusiasm about the number of volunteers involved in support of Avery County. He expressed appreciation for the work of Kim Barnhardt in that community. Dobbins noted that Covenant is sponsoring two Kenya trips this year, with 6 participants per trip. He reminded the Session that Mission Remarkable, the primary fundraiser for M&O, is February 23 and encouraged spreading the word and participating. Dobbins shared about the Wednesday evening series focused on Gun Violence that Nikki Zimmerman is facilitating. Upcoming is a session featuring Jimmy Greene, a Sandy Hook parent and a Grammy nominated artist. Dobbins encouraged participation. After brief remarks on continuation of, and participation in, Room in the Inn and Kinship, Dobbins concluded with a reminder of opportunities to participate in quarterly Presbytery meetings.

Jacqueline McAbee gave an update on Worship. She expressed gratitude for the support for the various Christmas services. McAbee noted that Tameka and Ben Thomas are our February Artists-in-Residence and that their music ministry has been so noteworthy. After appealing to the session to look for opportunities to serve communion and extended communion, she concluded by encouraging Session members to provide support during Baptisms.

Planning and Evaluation No Report

Clerk's Report Janet Delery, Clerk

Janet Delery referenced the Conflict of Interest Policy as approved by the previous Session. She asked each current Session member to read the policy and to complete an annual attestation for 2025. She noted that success was 100% participation and that transparency was the goal. Delery then noted that the March 10 Session meeting will be fashioned as a "mini-retreat" to afford the Session a chance to connect on subjects that would have been covered in the Session Retreat had it not been cancelled due to inclement weather.

Old Business/New Business: None

Staff Announcements/Pastoral Concerns:

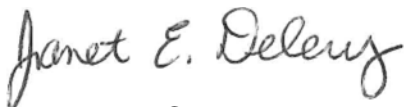

Katherine Kerr called out the upcoming "Minding our Minds" Wednesday evening series featuring Lindsay Bridges, MD, that focuses on mindfulness and encouraged participation. Kerr also joined Session member Robin Goodson in reminding all that mental health and substance abuse issues need our involvement, prayer and active support for friends, family and congregants facing them. She reminded all that the Pastors are here to help ensure people get the counseling support they need. Kerr concluded her remarks by noting several surgeries, hospitalizations, and a death in the congregation.

Mary Kate Sykes notes that Dr. Suzanne Henderson will be a featured speaker in the upcoming FAITH Talks Sunday morning session on February 16.

Closing Prayer:

Katherine Kerr closed the meeting with prayer at 8:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet Delery, Clerk

SUBJECT: P&E Report and Motion

DATE: March 10, 2025

Report From: Planning & Evaluation Board

Chair: Kim Spivey

At our monthly meeting on February 24, P & E explored our continuing efforts to embrace the Envisioning Report, citing specific examples of cross-ministry collaboration, enhanced mission endeavors, and enhanced worship experiences.

In addition, P and E was updated on significant progress related to our window renovation by Willet Hauser and looks toward a late spring/summer installation date with the specifics to be determined. We will share updates on this planning at April and May Session meetings

In order to create an historical record of our work and promote the upcoming installation, P and E moves that up to $10,000 dollars from the Rosebro Fund be approved by Session for video/photographic services, travel to the Willet studio, and other appropriate related expenses. The Rosebro Fund (currently holding a balance of more than 300K) is under the direction of P and E for strategic initiatives.

Report From: Sarah Wilson, Education Chair

Background: The purpose of this report is to provide an update on our Education Committee goals for the year

Attachment(s): Incubation Team Recommendations

2025 Education Ministry Goals:

GOAL 1 - With guidance from the Incubation Team report and recommendations, plan and implement strategies to increase volunteer engagement in our birth-to-high school programs and build community among volunteers. (Led by Jordan Schriefer)

Progress to date: The Incubation Team presented their recommendations at our first Education Committee meeting in February. A new team has been created to coordinate the "Ask Event" which will take place in May.

GOAL 2 - In continued response to Covenant's Envision report, foster meaningful intergenerational relationships by creating and supporting life group connections and collaborative initiatives that bring different age groups together. (Led by Sarah Wilson)

Progress to date: We have 18 Lenten life groups that will begin on March 12. As part of the life group curriculum, groups will be asked to consider ways that they can support the Education ministry this spring, primarily through volunteering with our Children and Youth programs.

It was with great joy and thanksgiving that we gathered at First-Charlotte Presbyterian Church! The meeting was called to order and opened with prayer by our 2024 Moderator, Elder Tommy Lawson (Covenant-Charlotte). He then turned over the gavel to the 2025 Moderator, Elder Gary Blackmon (Commissioned Pastor, Statesville Avenue). Elder Blackmon formally thanked Moderator Lawson on behalf of the Presbytery, for outstanding service as our 2024 Moderator and presented him with a certificate of appreciation from the Presbytery. Moderator Lawson then introduced 2025 Vice-Moderator, Rev. Deborah Conner (Davidson College Church). Rev. Pen Peery, Pastor of First Charlotte Church, welcomed the body on behalf of the officers and members of First-Charlotte and First United Churches.

The Presbytery entered into a time of worship in honor of Black History Month. Rev. Lucy Crain led the call to worship. Tammy Davis (CN Jenkins) led the prayer of confession and Amanda Shanks (Avondale) led the assurance of pardon. Rev. Michael Marsh read the scripture, Esther 4 :1-17 NLT. Rev. Dr. Jerry Cannon preached a powerful sermon entitled “For Such A Time As This.” The congregation was led in a special rendition of “Lift Every Voice and Sing” with poetry reading by Boris 'Bluz' Rogers. Courtney Shudak (Covenant-Charlotte) led the body in the Affirmation of Faith. Rev. Dr. Jan Edmiston and Elder Tamara Williams did the reading of the Necrology of Ministers and Elders who passed in 2024. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was led by Rev. Special music was rendered by the First-Charlotte Sanctuary Choir led by Director of Music, Will Young and Assistant Director Kaitlyn Davros.

General Presbyter, Rev. Dr. Jan Edmiston introduced our Presbytery theme for 2025: “Past, Present, Possible!” She emphasized the need for churches to support the Presbytery through Unified Mission Giving. It is imperative that churches accurately report their membership since per Capita is based on membership. Jan also stressed the importance of churches following the guidelines of the Commission on Ministry in searching for pastoral leadership. Jan ended her GP Report with some highlights to celebrate for 2024: Over 1300 flood buckets delivered to Western NC; Ten Cents-a-Meal received and distributed $10,000 more than expected; the MRC handed out $86,000 in grants; a 'Housing Huddle' was held at Caldwell Church to look at ways to use church properties; we welcomed 15 new pastors and have 35 inquirers and candidates under our care.

Rev. Dr. Julia Robinson Moore, UNCC Professor, and Adreonna Benette, Community Engagement Archivist, gave a brief overview of the Archiving Catawba Presbytery Project, which is funded through a substantive grant from the Mellon Foundation to support the scanning, digitization, and documentation of historical documents related to the history of Catawba Presbytery. Rev. Rodger Sellers gave a brief update on Ministry Resource Committee grants and plans for upcoming “Nuts & Bolts” educational opportunities coming in 2025.

The Presbytery of Charlotte approved the following four readers for the spring ordination exams: Ministers: Stephen Nickle and Casey Aldridge Elders: Andrea Graham and Paul Pedigo.

For the COM Report, Rev. Julie Bird recognized the retirement of the Rev. Fred Lyon and Rev. D. Elliott Hipp. She then led the body in a laying on of hands, by members of the Commission on Ministry, for Rev. Lyon and Rev. Hipp as they move to this next phase of their life in service to the church.
