It's March!

Phillip White

The month of March always feels like a time of newness, signaling a change of the seasons as we move from cold to warm weather. For some it's the beginning of allergy season, and for others it's time to watch college basketball. Regardless of what springtime means to you, there is something truly healing about the warmth of sunshine as it hits your face for the first time you walk outside each day. New flowers blossom in March and new life begins as we kick off the year. I'm already excited for Easter! One verse I like to dwell on in this season is from Isaiah,

*"Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland"*
(Isaiah 43:18-19).

The Lord gives us intentional times to recenter and prepare for a new season of growth in the Spring. We can be introspective and do a health check on our own walk with the Lord, cast vision and create new life rhythms for our families, and look out into our city and the world to where we can bring the newness and hope of Christ. Yes, we can do all of these things at any point and should do them regularly. However, for those of us that feel stuck or needing some help getting started, you can be comforted that the rest of the Lord's creation is getting going with you. The ground is warming up and preparing for new life. I think back to Pastor Eric's "God-Made" series where we walked through Genesis together. For those screen and media tips that we talked about, if you haven't created those new rhythms yet for yourself, now would be a good time. All of us are distracted from the things that matter most at times, so let's commit to taking a step together towards recentering on our Creator and listening to what exciting new things He has in store for us this year.

The Week Before the Cross

New Sermon Series Begins Today

When Jesus entered Jerusalem in the days before Passover, He did so with full knowledge that the road ahead would lead to the cross. That final, holy week before Calvary was filled with some of His most pivotal teachings, powerful miracles, and personal moments. As we journey toward Easter, we will walk with our Lord and Savior day-by-day, reflecting on His final steps and the depth of His love as He willingly laid down His life for the sins of the world.

Forever Family Sunday Bible Study

Begins Romans on March 8

The book of Romans is known as Paul's "Magnum Opus," or greatest work. It contains the Roman Road, the evangelical tool that encapsulates the entire message of salvation – from fall to redemption. We'll study selected passages and explore topics like the universality of sin, what happens to those who never had the opportunity to hear the name of Jesus, whether God predestines people for salvation, and what is God's plan for Israel. Join us on Sundays in the Pastor's Conference Room at 9:40 a.m.

Titus2gether Women's Mentoring

If you desire to see the women of South Tulsa encouraged and built up in the faith, then get involved in Titus2gether. Mentoring trios consist of a mentor, mentee, and a prayer warrior. Trios are formed with prayerful consideration; however, existing mentoring partnerships are also welcome. The spring Titus2gether Women's Mentoring Kickoff is on Sunday, March 8, from 2:00-3:00 p.m. in the Music Suite. Please register online at southtulsa.org/events by March 1.

South Tulsa Baptist Church History Project

Are you a person who loves history and storytelling? If so, we'd love your help in telling the story of our church in new and creative ways. It was on Valentine's Day, 1982, that the original charter of South Tulsa Baptist Church was signed and our congregation became a permanent fixture here at 103rd and Sheridan. Since then, God has continued to do amazing things through our church – both in our community and around the world! Throughout this year, we will be working on telling our story in writing, on video, and in displays throughout our building. If you'd like to learn more about this project, please join us for an information meeting in the Pastor's Conference Room on Sunday, March 8, just after the 10:50 a.m. worship service or email cindy@southtulsa.org for more information.

Gardening Tea Party

The Caring for Each Other (CEO) Widows Ministry invites the widows of South Tulsa to a Gardening Tea Party on Saturday, March 7 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Please let us know if you will be attending. RSVP by March 5 online at southtulsa.org/events.

Congratulations Eugene Howard on 5 Years

We proudly recognize Eugene Howard for five years of faithful service on South Tulsa's Facilities Team. His dedication, hard work, and servant's heart help create a welcoming environment for our church family week after week. Though much of his work happens behind the scenes, his impact is deeply felt. Thank you, Eugene!

Bridge Builders Luncheon

Join us for our next luncheon on Tuesday, March 3, at 11:15 a.m. in the South Tulsa Chapel. Let's celebrate Gospel Music with our special guest, Wade Daniel, in concert. Wade is the Minister of Music at First Baptist Church, Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Enjoy a wonderful lunch and a great time of fellowship. Everyone is welcome to attend. Please make your reservations at southtulsa.org/events.

CarePortal Response Team Meeting

Are you interested in learning more about CarePortal and how you can join other church members in meeting the needs of foster children and their families in our community? Come join us on Sunday, March 8, at 4:00 p.m. in the Conference Room!

Men's Morning Prayer and Devotion

Men of all ages, please join us Thursday, March 12, 6:00-7:00 a.m. in the Chapel. We meet on the second Thursday of the month to pray together and a small devotional is also shared with the group. Coffee and donuts provided!
