

The Good News of a Good Shepherd

Rev. Sherri Reynolds

Changing Lives by Sharing Christ, Making Disciples, Serving and Giving Hope

Sermon Notes: Thursday, May 8 and Sunday, May 11

Do you have a favorite comfort food? This is a food that feeds our emotions when we are distressed. It may be a treat that does not make the foundation for a healthy diet but helps us feel much better. My comfort foods include ice cream (particularly Brown Cows), Boom Chicka Pop, and Reese Pieces. These can bring me joy on an otherwise joyless day. Do you have comfort clothes? This is a favorite sweatshirt, T-shirt or stretchy pants that make you feel relaxed no matter what your mood. The clothing becomes your “go to” when you need care on a bad day. Do you have a comfort scripture? This is a passage which gives you strength and solace when you need hope. It is likely a scripture which you have memorized and comes to mind easily as life gets hard. For many that would be the 23rd Psalm. This Psalm has brought comfort and peace to generations. It offers solace and promises that guide us even in the most difficult times.

If you find yourself needing comfort this week (especially as we approach Mother’s Day), rest in the 23rd Psalm. The Psalm is a promise that the Lord is our Good Shepherd who provides, protects and guides. In the Psalmist reflections, there is assurance for a weary soul and care when we may need it the most.

In the Name of the Good Shepherd,

Rev. Sherri

Sunday School: New Adult Series

Transitions 10 am, Room 209

This study encourages thinking persons of faith to model for the rest of the country a richer, more thoughtful conversation on the political, moral, and religious issues that divide us. Hamilton rejects the easy assumptions and sloppy analysis of black and white thinking, seeking instead the truth that resides on all sides of the issues, and offering a faithful and compassionate way forward.

Pathfinders/Seekers 10 am, Room 208

Parables by Josh Scott. When Jesus taught in parables, he was doing more than telling simple morality tales. His stories were grounded in the world in which he lived and his vision of the Kingdom of God. This book explores six parables that give us a window into Jesus's message and movement, and, once they are heard in their own context, ask what they might mean for us today. Parables include: the New Wine and Wineskins, the Mustard Seed, the Leaven, the Wedding Party, the Workers in the Vineyard, and the Wicked Tenants.

Living Water 10 am, Room 116

The Living Water Class is doing a unique study for the next several weeks. We are looking at events, teachings, miracles, parables found in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Since these three gospels are very similar in many incidences special books have been written that compare these similar stories. So you may have a story in one, or two or all three Gospels. We are examining these events to see what we can learn from them.

Do You Know?

DEANNA EVERETT

Deanna grew up in Gadsden and graduated from Litchfield High School. She then attended Jacksonville State University, where she received a Bachelor's degree in Education. She continued her studies at the University of Alabama, receiving a Master's degree in Secondary Education with an emphasis in Biology. She is now retired after 25 years of teaching Science at General Forrest Middle School. Now Deanna enjoys a part-time job of daytime pet sitting. She'll feed and walk animals or just check on them during the day—whatever the client would like. Her main hobby is Pickleball. She also enjoys working at our church's Clothes Closet, which is open the first and third Wednesday of each month. Deanna joined our church in March 2025, and we are delighted to have her!

This past Easter, we invited you to tithe the week of Holy Week, above and beyond your general fund offering. I am pleased to share that you responded with deep generosity. As of the writing of this letter, approximately $28,000 has been given as part of the 2025 Alleluia Offering. Thank you for your ongoing generosity and support. Your giving has enabled us to fund ongoing organ maintenance, activities for our students this summer, and new media ministries.

As always, I am overwhelmed by the level of generosity within the congregation. What you are doing through First United Methodist Church of Gadsden is changing lives in the name of Jesus.

Thanks be to God!
