

The Crack in the Sidewalk is a Place for the Plant to Grow
Rev. Sherri Reynolds

Changing Lives by Sharing Christ, Making Disciples, Serving and Giving Hope

Sermon Notes: Thursday, May 9 & Sunday, May 12, 2024

Have you ever noticed the resiliency of a plant? A sprout can take hold in the least likely of places, eventually flourishing in a place that no one would expect. Take for example a crack in the sidewalk. Typically, it doesn't take long for a seed to find its way into a sidewalk crack and start to grow. We may have even seen saplings destroy manmade barriers of concrete and asphalt to flourish in inhospitable environments. It may take some time, but a sidewalk is no match for the root system or trunk of a growing oak tree.

The scripture for Mother's Day showcases the resiliency of Christ-followers in the most inhospitable environment. Paul and Silas were beaten and thrown in jail. There they find themselves in the inner most cell, in chains. While imprisoned, they sing songs at midnight praising God. With a miracle from God, they are freed and use the occasion to witness to the jailer. This leads to the jailer and his family believing in Jesus and being baptized. (Acts 16:16-34). The obstacle of jail becomes a place for Paul and Silas to minister and a space for the message of Jesus to flourish. Thus, echoing the sentiments of Paul, which we later find in his letter to Rome, "All things work together for Good, for those who love the Lord and are called according to His purpose." Whatever "crack" or obstacles that you find yourself in today, may God's grace and peace be with you as you grow in His love despite those present circumstances. In God's Grace, Rev. Sherri

In response to recent tornadoes in central Alabama and central Georgia and flooding in California, the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) approved early relief grants to meet immediate needs in three annual conferences.

On Jan. 12, multiple tornadoes slammed the southeastern United States, killing at least seven and destroying numerous communities. Assessing needs in hard-hit Selma, Alabama, a leadership team from the Alabama-West Florida Conference noted that approximately 600 households were affected by more than a dozen tornadoes. "It would not surprise me," said the Rev. Chris Ackerman, conference disaster response coordinator, "if the total number of houses affected is over 1,000." "From the moment the warning was activated in Dallas County," recalled the Rev. Diane Everette, Church Street United Methodist Church, Selma, "our UMC connection stayed in touch with me to ensure that I was personally safe as well as our church members.

While Thursday was, perhaps, one of the most terrifying days of my life, I was never alone, thanks to my brothers and sisters in Christ in this conference. It will be a long road ahead for Selma, but our conference disaster response team will walk with us every step of the way."

All GFUMC donations will be sent to the NAC Disaster Relief Warehouse in Decatur!

Take the Spiritual Gifts Inventory @ Spiritual Gifts UMC.org

Every child of God is filled with the power of the Holy Spirit, specially gifted to play a unique and valued role in the body of Christ. No one is without gift or purpose.

Spiritual gifts are not our talents or skills. They are the grace of God at work within us, empowering us to match our deep passions with the world's deep need. The gifts are given to individuals, but they are given to build and strengthen community and to meet the needs of those around us.

Begin the journey. Discover your gifts. Talk about your gifts with others. Strive together to understand your gifts and how you can use them to serve God, neighbor, and world. You have been gifted. You have been given a purpose.

MARTHA CROWE

Martha grew up in a small community west of Birmingham. She walked to Church for Sunday School and Worship. At age 13, she professed her faith in Christ at a Youth Revival. Her teen years revolved around activities in the Church Youth Group. She studied accounting while raising three children: Ray, Christopher and Kim, and is blessed with four grandchildren and four great grandchildren (with another due in November). Martha worked in banking while in Alabama, then moved to Georgia, where she worked as VP of Membership and Special Events for the Cartersville Chamber of Commerce. She later served as the Director of the Cave Spring Downtown Development Authority and was the creator of "Cave Spring Bacon Fest," a fundraiser for the town, which continues to be an annual event. She encourages BUY LOCAL. Martha likes to fish, both fresh and salt water, and loves her dog Belle and all the "fur babies" in the family. She is an avid reader and stays close to friends old and new. She is married to Ronald Crowe of Alexander City, who loves to cook for UMC events. She is also the mother of Ray Macon, who sings in our choir.

Sermon Series for June: #wearefirst

It is hard to believe that I have been appointed to First United Methodist Church for almost a year now. During this past year, I have grown to know you and love you, as the church. The unique qualities that you bring as a congregation enrich my life, one another's lives, and Gadsden. It is my joy to serve you.

During the month of June, First United Methodist Church embarks on a sermon series to celebrate the strength and beauty of the congregation: #wearefirst. Join us each Sunday as we examine the gifts of our diversity, our generosity, the theology of all empowered for ministry and our roots in tradition which come together to be First United Methodist Church of Gadsden. In addition to this series, there will be a themed logo showcasing our beautiful steeple, which will be available on coffee mugs, t-shirts, and yard signs. For the course of the series, you can celebrate and share your photos of all things FUMC with #wearefirst on your social media accounts. This will be a season of celebrating what makes us First United Methodist Church. — Rev. Sherri

First Family,

Each day, I am overwhelmed by God's abundant blessings, especially the blessings at First United Methodist Church. Several months ago, I challenged the leadership to add three simple prayers for the church each day: reaching 200 in average worship attendance, financial provision, and blessings and direction for student ministry. I have seen the work of God in these areas, especially in the area financial provision.

Over the past month, we have received two substantial grants, and the giving has exceeded expenses and budget. To top it all, I celebrate a 2024 Alleluia Offering of $31,571.00. The money from this offering will fund the 2024 Confirmation Retreat, allow enhancements in worship, and fund new ministry. This offering exceeded last year's gift and is the second largest Alleluia offering received.

Thank you for your generosity and being an instrument through which, God is blessing the ministry of First United Methodist Church. Your giving is an answer to the prayers lifted daily on your behalf and on behalf of this church. I especially thank you for going above and beyond in the Alleluia Offering. As you are a part of God's abundant blessings in my life and our church.

In Gratitude,

Rev. Sherri Reynolds
