The Woman with the Alabaster Jar

Luke 7:36-50

How will you

Jesus?

Generosity 2025

Changing Lives by Sharing Christ, Making Disciples, Serving and Giving Hope

Sermon Notes: Thursday, Oct. 10 & Sunday, Oct. 13, 2024

This is our second week in the 2025 Generosity Emphasis, journeying through Luke. In this gospel, Jesus meets folks where they are, offering radical grace. Each of the characters responded differently to God's grace.

The Woman with the Alabaster Jar (Luke 7: 36-50): Jesus was dining at the home of a Pharisee. A woman who had a bad reputation located Jesus and came to where he was dining. She brought with her an expensive jar of ointment and stood at his feet, weeping, bathing his feet with her tears and wiping his feet with her hair. She kissed Jesus' feet and anointed them with the ointment. This scene outraged the Pharisees. After all, she was sinful and if Jesus were a prophet, then he would know and have nothing to do with this unclean woman. Jesus responded to the Pharisees, telling them she was only reacting to what she had experienced. She had experienced radical grace and from radical grace came extreme devotion, affection, generosity, and love. Her sins were forgiven, and she responded with profound thanksgiving. This was the response of the woman with the Alabaster jar. How will you respond? Too often we fail to show gratitude to Jesus for what he has done. Unlike the Woman with the Alabaster Jar, we rarely go to lavish measures to express gratitude. How do we need to express gratitude? With our words and prayers? Through worship? By giving back to God a portion of what he has given us? Telling others about the goodness of God? How is Jesus inviting you to respond?

How will you respond?

If you are looking for ways to donate to those impacted by Hurricane Helene across the Southeast U.S., consider donating to UMCOR (The United Methodist Committee on Relief).

UMCOR responds to natural or civil disasters of such magnitude that they overwhelm a community's ability to recover on its own. Through UMCOR, United Methodists extend loving care to people within the United States. When disaster strikes, it is local churches that provide the first response to their communities. This basic understanding—that disaster response is local—forms the foundation for UMCOR's US disaster training and response. When responding to a disaster in the United States, UMCOR provides training, financial assistance, expertise, community collaboration to churches and partners making them more resilient to disasters.

JULIA LOPEZ

Julia grew up in Merrill, Wisconsin, and graduated from Merrill Senior High School. She then received her degree as a Registered Nurse (RN) at Presentation College in Aberdeen, South Dakota. She began her career by working in the Coronary Intensive Care Unit at Hennepin County Hospital in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and is now retired after 33 years in nursing. In the 1970s, she spent time in Mobile, AL, and loved it, wanting to come back to Alabama when she retired; but she hesitated to be so close to the shore during hurricane season, so she decided to move to Gadsden. Julia has three grown children: Juliette (56), a stay-at-home mom who has her own soap-making business; Christopher (51), who has worked for the U.S. government in various capacities; and Norman (46), a tool and die maker in northwestern Wisconsin. Her husband, Gilbert Lopez, is deceased, but used to work on a Navajo reservation for the State of Arizona. Julia enjoys inventing lotions, creams, and sprays for women and hopes to market them sometime in the future. She also loves reading, gardening, knitting, crocheting, cooking, and baking.

LuVerna Waid Circle News

We are making changes! In order to be the hands and feet of Christ, as we feel commissioned to do, our Circle is changing our meeting day. We will now meet on the 2nd Sunday of each month at 3:00 pm, in room 208. We will still share a devotion, but will be doing Hands-on-Mission Projects each month. On Sunday, October 13th, we will make fleece scarves to be distributed to selected agencies for winter weather. We have plenty of fleece blankets to make the scarves thanks to our generous members.

The LuVerna Waid Circle is very excited about our new mission! Thanks to all who helped by bringing "fleece blankets for scarves" to provide warmth for those in need this winter!

We will look forward to these monthly mission projects with fun and fellowship. We hope to have many ladies join us!

Stories of Generosity from the Gospel of Luke

This October, First United Methodist Church will spend the month in the gospel of Luke examining the response of people as they met Jesus. Simon left everything to follow. The forgiven woman was extravagantly generous and worshipful. Zacchaeus changed his life, making amends for his deceptive practices. The thief on the cross trusted Jesus as they were dying by Roman execution. Their stories capture our imagination and cause us to wonder how we might respond. These stories set the backdrop for Generosity 2025.

When we encounter Jesus, we respond in some way. Do we reject him or ignore him? Do we react with devotion and worship? Do we serve others and share with others about him? Do we live generous lives, offering thanks and changing to be more like Christ? These are questions which we all answer individually. I pray that our encounters with Jesus challenge us to lead lives which produce great thanksgiving to God, just like the people that we meet in Luke through this upcoming sermon series.

"You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us" 2 Corinthians 9:11

How will you respond? —Rev. Sherri
