

Taking Your Understanding of the Gospel to the Next Level

QUIET TIME JOURNAL

THIS BOOK BELONGS TO:

MAKING YOUR QUIET TIME MEANINGFUL

*"I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily food."
-Job 23:12*

Bible reading is an indispensable part of our relationship with God. Through the Bible, we hear His voice, we learn who He is and how to walk in His Ways.

This journal is a tool intended to help you get the most out of your time in God's Word. If you don't already have a pattern for the time you spend with God each day, then this journal will be a good guide for you to follow.

PRAY—Begin by acknowledging God's presence and worshipping Him. Then ask God to speak to directly to you from the Scripture passage(s) you are about to read.

READ (and reread)—Read through the entire passage for the day, and then reread it to discover a verse or idea that speaks to you.

REFLECT—Spend a few minutes digging a little deeper. You can do this by underlining key words and phrases, by rewriting the passage in your own words, or journaling your thoughts.

Asking questions will help you to discover more about the passage. Here are a few questions you may want to ask:

- Is there a command to obey?
- Is there a promise to claim?
- Is there a sin to avoid?
- Is there an application to make?
- Is there something new about God?

PRAY AGAIN—Close your time with a prayer of response. You may want to write out this prayer as a way to intentionally focus on what God has shown you.

What is it that God promises through the Prophet Jeremiah?

LUKE 1:30-33

How does Luke's description of God's promise compare to Jeremiah's?

What attributes do Jeremiah and Luke ascribe to God's promised savior?

Jeremiah 31:31-34

What does God's new covenant provide mankind that the old covenant does not?

CENTRAL LESSON

Through the prophets, God promised a Messiah who would be a Righteous King and usher in a New Covenant (way of entering into relationship with God).
