

What Is Man? [Lyrics]

[Default Arrangement] by Dorothy Scott

V1, C1, V1, C1, V2, C1, B, C1, V3, C2, C1

Verse 1:

Who has hung the world on nothing—
Traced the limits for the waves?
Who commanded every morning
Since the onset of all days?
Who numbered clouds by wisdom—
Caused the dawn to know its place?
Oh, He is the Lord!

For His throne is eternal,
Forever it stands
So in reverence we proclaim:
“Son of Man! Son of Man!”

Chorus:

He's the Lord, God Almighty,
Our omniscient King
From His kindness and wisdom,
Flow every good thing
As we think on His deeds,
All the work of His hands,
In humility we ask:
“What is man? What is man?”

Verse 2:

Who alone does mighty wonders—
Parts the seas beneath His will?
Conquers kings and frees His people;
Steadfast love enduring still
The Lord is our salvation
And His plans will never fail
Oh, He is the Lord!

Bridge:

What is man that we can know Him?
He is infinitely great!
Who are we to be invited—
Beckoned near to see and taste?
Thanks to God, the God of heaven
Reaching low to our estate,
To show, He is the Lord!

Verse 3:

Who to earth has condescended—
Lower than the angels made?
Tasted death for all the chosen,
Faced the cross, endured its shame
Now Jesus, crowned with glory,
Ever lives and ever reigns
Oh, He is the Lord!

Chorus 2:

He's the Lord God, our Savior
He's Jesus, our King
He is high and exalted,
His praises we sing
