

BLS CPR and First Aid

About DAN Basic Life Support: CPR and First-Aid Provider Training

A valid DAN Basic Life Support: CPR and First-Aid Provider completion card indicates that the bearer has met or exceeded course requirements for the following:

Knowledge

- Basic Life Support
- Respiration and Circulation
- Scene Safety and Initial Assessments
- CPR (1- and 2-rescuer; adult, child and infant)
- AED
- Foreign Body Airway Obstruction
- Shock Management
- First-Aid Assessments
- Control of External Bleeding
- Bandaging and Wound Management
- Medical Emergencies
- Burns and Temperature-Related Injuries
- Lifting and Moving
- Home Emergency Plans

Skills

- Scene Safety Assessment
- Donning and Removing Gloves
- Initial Assessment
- Recovery Position
- CPR (1-and 2 rescuer; adult, child and infant)
- AED
- Obstructed Airway
- Shock Management
- Control of External Bleeding
- Wound packing
- Applying a Tourniquet
- F-A-S-T Assessment
- Secondary Assessment
- Splinting
- Taking a History
- Severe Allergic Reaction and/or Opioid Overdose

If you have any questions or special requirements, please email oxygen@dan.org.

Best regards,

Jim Gunderson
DAN Training Department

