

Exodus 13:1-16

The background of the slide features abstract, flowing shapes in shades of orange and blue. A horizontal white band is positioned across the middle of the image, serving as a backdrop for the title text.

The background of the slide features a photograph of sand dunes under a clear blue sky. The dunes are in the foreground and middle ground, with their ridges and valleys creating a rhythmic pattern. The sky is a deep, clear blue, visible in the upper and lower portions of the frame. A horizontal white band is superimposed across the middle of the image, serving as a backdrop for the text.

<sup>14</sup> As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, <sup>15</sup> but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, <sup>16</sup> since it is written,
“You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

JERRY BRIDGES

“[To be holy] is to be separated from sin, and, therefore, consecrated, to God. The word signifies ‘separation to God, and the conduct befitting those so separated.’”

Jerry Bridges, The Pursuit of Holiness
