Rejoicing in the God of Our Redemption

Exodus 15:1-21

Central Idea

We are to rejoice not merely in our redemption but in the God of our redemption.

Main Application

Our worship must exalt God not merely what
He has done for us.

1

We must praise God together to remind each other to praise God.

Exod 15:1-5,20-21

Fear drives who we serve (worship).

Exod 14:10-14,30-31

The proper response to the deliverance of God is the praise of God.

Exod 15:1-5

A photograph of a desert landscape with large, undulating sand dunes. The colors range from deep orange and red at the base of the dunes to a lighter, sandy color on top. A small, dark silhouette of a person is walking along the edge of one of the dunes on the left side of the frame, providing a sense of scale to the vast, open space.

The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults,
and with my song
I give thanks to him.

Psa 28:7 (ESV)

13 I was pushed hard, so that I was falling,
but the LORD helped me.

14 *The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation.*

15 Glad songs of salvation are in the tents
of the righteous: “The right hand of the LORD does valiantly,

16 the right hand of the LORD exalts, the right hand of the LORD does valiantly!”

Psa 118:13-16 (ESV)

Isa 12:2

3

We must worship God for who He is not for who we want Him to be.

Exod 15:3-12

It is God's steadfast love for His people not His people's steadfast love for Him that leads to our redemption.

Exod 15:13

The greatest blessing of our redemption is not our deliverance from our enemy but our deliverance to our God.

Exod 15:13,17

We must rejoice not merely in our redemption but in the God of our redemption.

The LORD will reign forever and ever.
