What does it mean to be filled

the fullness of God.

What does it look like to be filled with the Spirit?

1

Speaking in song to one another

Eph 5:19

Eph 5:19

Addressing one another...singing... making melody

Psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs encompass a broad range of musical forms.

Part of our commitment as a body of Christ is to worship God together through singing.

Playing instruments in worship is biblical and Christian.

Do all the “Christian” songs we sing actually bring our focus and attention to God & Christ?

2

Thanking (Praising) God

Eph 5:20

Eph 5:20

Giving thanks always and for everything to God...

An indwelling gratitude for all things is a defining characteristic of being Christian.

Col 3:17

We must be thoroughly convinced that nothing escapes God's goodness for us and towards us.

Rom 8:28

We are only able to praise God at any time because of Christ.

Col 3:17

Rom 8:34; Heb 7:23-25; 9:24; 1 John 2:1

What suffering, what injustice, what evil are you angry/bitter/resentful about that you are unwilling to thank God for?

3

Submitting to one another

Eph 5:21

Eph 5:21

Submitting to one another...

Pew Bible Page: 978

Submit = To Order + Under

Matt 28:16

Submission is a choice.

The motivation for submission has to be determined to understand why you would submit.

Our mutual submission to one another is an act of humility and evidence of the Lordship of Christ.

Be filled by the Spirit.

Sing!
Praise!
Submit!
