

The Incarnation: Why the Son of God became Human

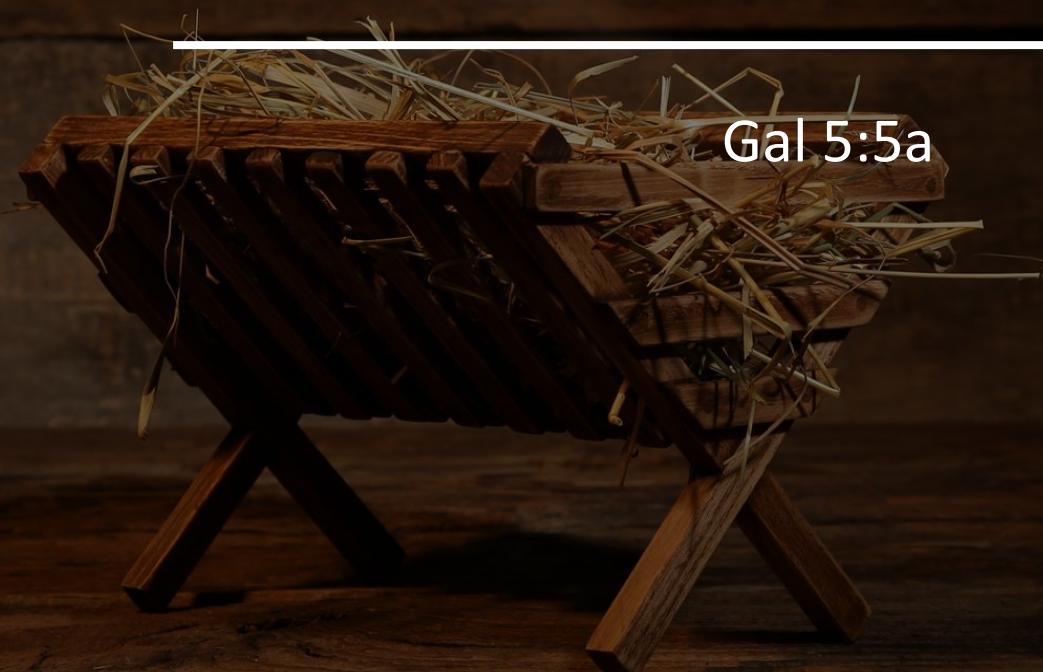

Gal 4:4-5

Why did Christ come as a human?

Christ came to redeem those under the law.

---

Gal 5:5a

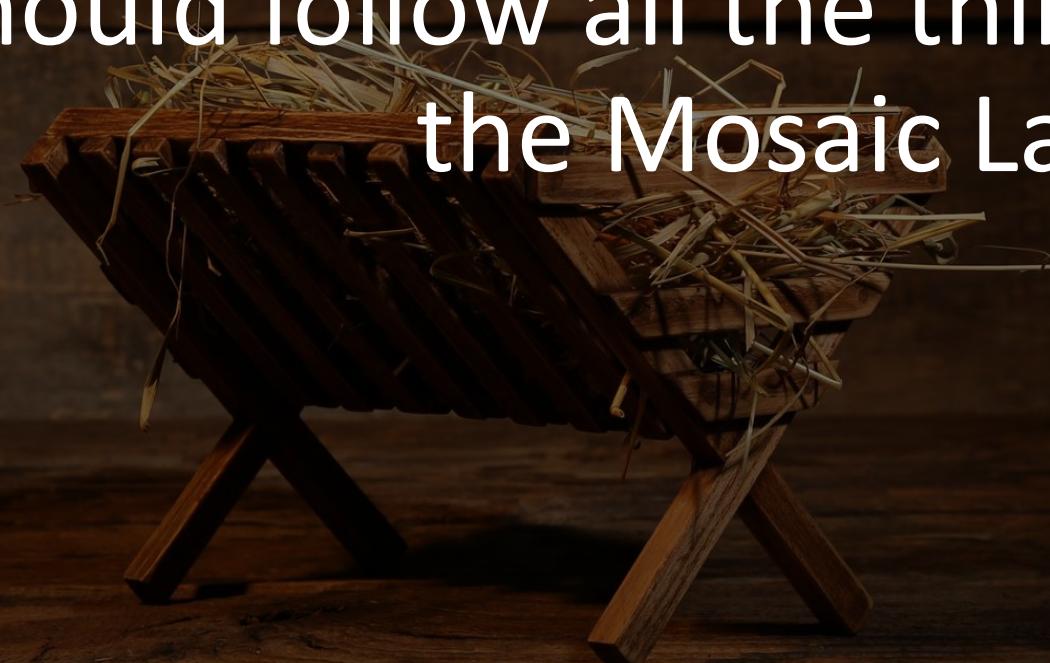

Redemption means Christ
came to take possession of us.

Being under the Law means
you are cursed.

If you want to earn your righteousness
so that God will accept you, then you should follow all the things written in the Mosaic Law.

Break One = Break All

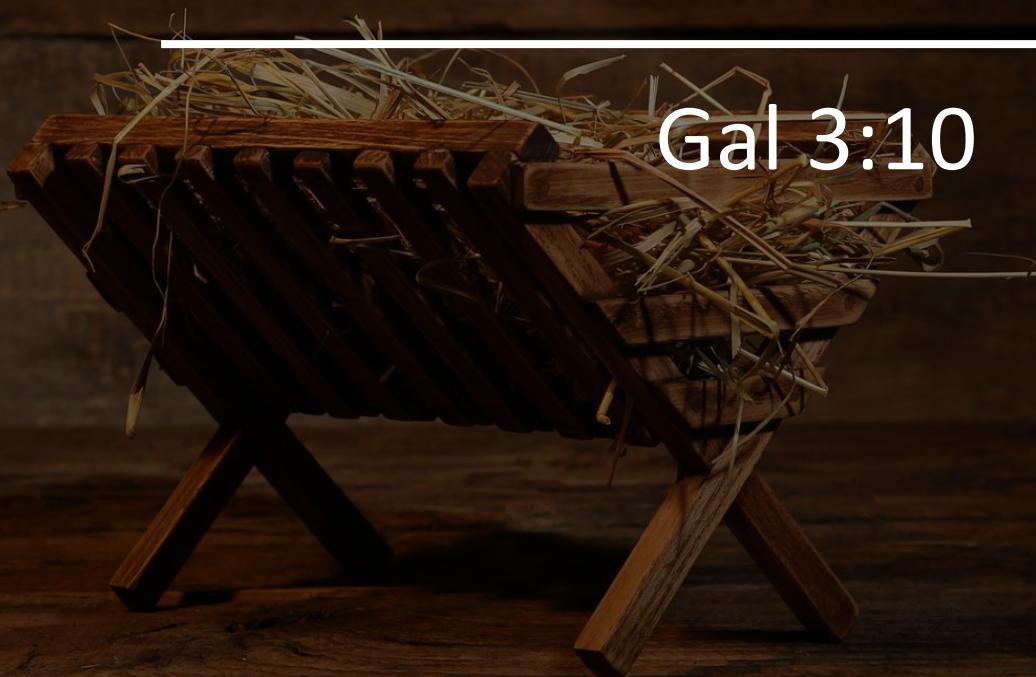

Redeem those under the law
from what?

Christ came to redeem those who desire to be right with God
from righteousness
through following rules.

---

Gal 3:10

Christ came so that we could be adopted!

---

Gal 4:5b

Our salvation from works-based righteousness is possible because God
the Father sent the Son to save us!

---

Gal 4:4

The Father sent the Son when the fullness of time had come.

---

Gal 4:4

Trying to keep the Mosaic Law to prove we are righteousness should teach us that it is impossible!

The Father sent the Son to be born
of a woman (to be human).

---

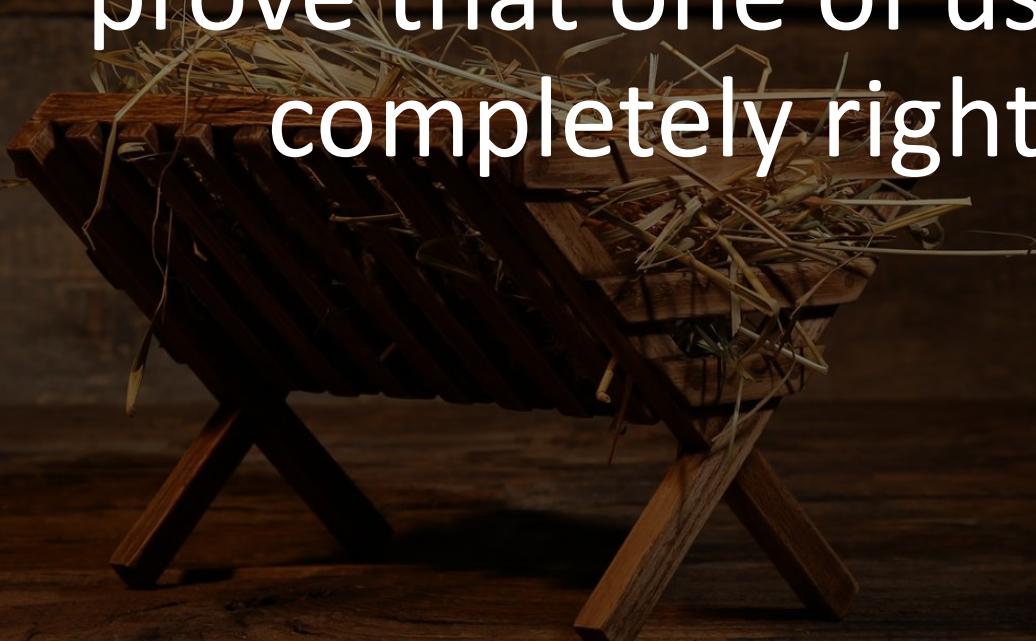

Gal 4:4

Jesus could only redeem us by becoming one of us.

Jesus had to become one of us so he could come under the Law and prove that one of us could be completely righteous.

The Father sent the Son to be born
under the law.

---

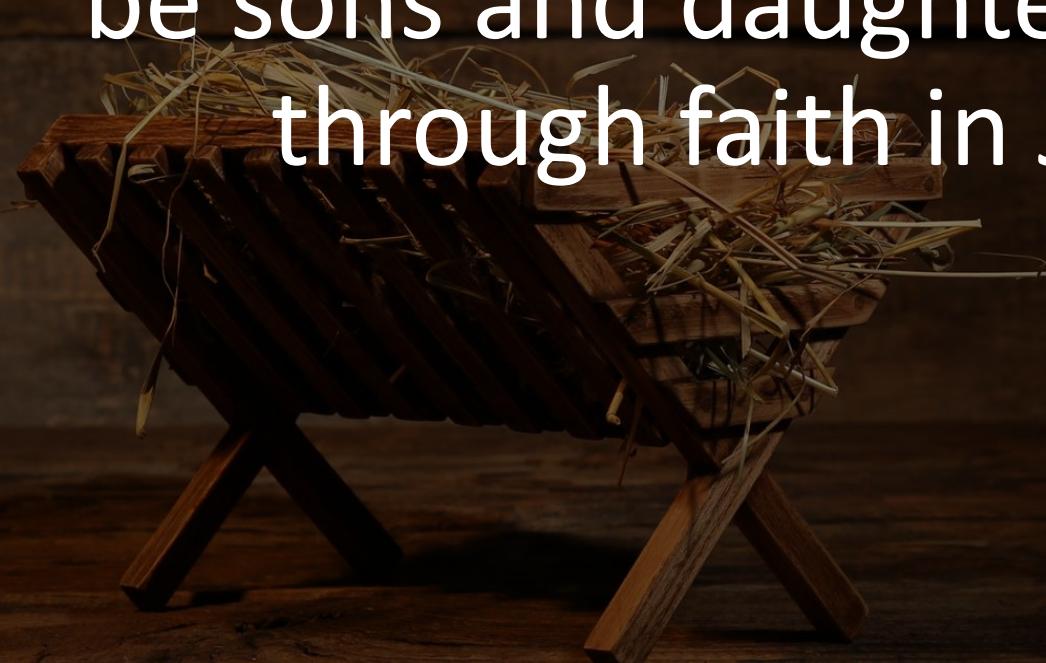

A wooden manger filled with straw, set against a dark, textured background.

Gal 4:4

Jesus was born under the Law
to bear the consequences of the curse of the Law.

The Son of God became human,
Jesus of Nazareth, to redeem us from the curse of the law so that we would be sons and daughters of God
through faith in Jesus.

The Son of God became human
so we could become God's children
through faith in Jesus.

