

Gaudete (Rejoice!) Sunday

To be a messenger of God's Word is a privilege, and one we must never take for granted.

Like the Prophets, we are called to listen attentively to what God has said and then pass that message on.

We have been hearing recently of St John the Baptist, the best example of being God's messenger, calling God's People back to Himself.

Being God's messenger doesn't give us the authority to change the message. We cannot update it or reinterpret it or change it.

We are called to be a servant, to serve the message, to pass on what we have received.

The priest, in a unique way, carries this responsibility and today, Bishop Philip, in his Pastoral Letter, invites all men to ask themselves a question 'am I being called by God to be His Messenger, His Priest'?

Let us pray for an increase of vocations to the Priesthood this weekend.

Something for everyone!

Last weekend 60 people gathered for our Big Christmas Quiz of the year (above) – including our Deputy Mayor, Linda Delve. Our thanks to Cecilia (the Quiz Mistress), Susan who co-ordinated the raffle and to all those who provided the delicious food. The quiz brings together many different parish groups, made up of all ages and abilities. It's great fun and the atmosphere is always amazing. The Quiz takes place on the First Saturday of the month with 'themed quizzes' in March (St Patrick), April (St George), November (St Andrew) and December (Christmas). If you haven't been yet, come along in the New Year!

Members of the Pipe band performed at Lindford WMC last Friday. If you would like to learn to play the Bagpipes or drums, come along to a band practice!

New in 2026:

Men's walking group (4th Sundays)
Table tennis club (Saturday afternoons)
Uno Tournament (Saturday mornings)

Chess Club: We meet at 11am on the first Saturday of the month

Gardening Club:

A group of hardworking parishioners meet on Saturdays

Friday soups: We have an amazing team producing delicious soups each Friday after the 12 noon Mass. Come along! The soups are lovely and it's a good opportunity to meet other parishioners.

Family learning from the Catechism:

Advent is a penitential time, time of denying the self, overcoming entitlement and putting God first. Here is what the Catechism has to say about penance:

1434 The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in many and various ways. Scripture and the Fathers insist above all on three forms, fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others.

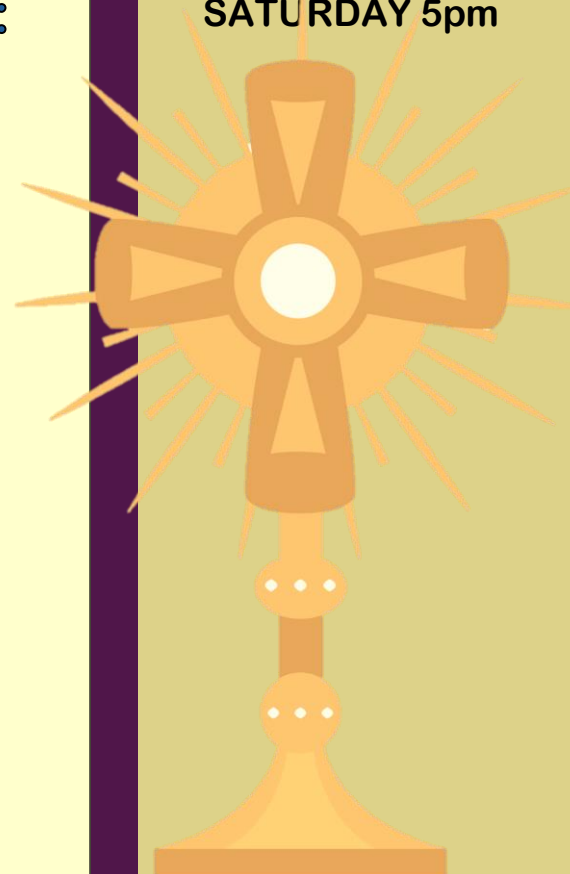

1435 Conversion is accomplished in daily life by gestures of reconciliation, concern for the poor, the exercise and defence of justice and right, by the admission of faults to one's brethren, fraternal correction, revision of life, examination of conscience, spiritual direction, acceptance of suffering, endurance of persecution for the sake of righteousness. Taking up one's cross each day and following Jesus is the surest way of penance.
