

Gatherd into one

We have been reflecting since Pentecost Sunday on how God the Holy Spirit 'Gathers us into one'.

He does this through the Church which He governs and sanctifies through the Sacraments.

The Catholic Church is the way the Lord established for us to be made His own people.

Today's Gospel recalls how he sent 72 out in pairs to gather people for Him.

He says that if the people do not welcome them, then they should leave them and shake the dust off of their feet as a sign to them.

Being in communion with God and His People, the church, is called being in a state of grace.

If we have been made one with God and His People through Baptism and the other sacraments, we can freely choose to disconnect or to 'ex-communicate' ourselves from God and His People – we are free.

But, God is always ready to forgive and to welcome us back, through the Sacrament of Confession.
